Judge Lynch would be too kind a magistrate to dispose of such rascals; he should be an Indian, and the punishment death by torture.

EDS. REVIEW—I notice by an advertisement in your paper that my late partner, G. S. Ackley gives notice to the public that he "will pay no more of Frank Rosenfield's debts."

mation I had that he had been asked to pay any of my debts. I beg to inform the public that I have abundant means to liquidate all claims against me, and if I owe any man will pay him on presentation of the bill.

Don't forget the lecture at the Institute to-night.
