Co. A, 9th Regiment, Capt. WILT, have received orders to start for Washington on No. 9 this afternoon. This will be a much pleasanter arrangement for the boys than starting on the night line. They will be back Saturday night.

For the first time in many a day we, yesterday missed the genial countenance of our good friend WILLIAM SCOTT in our sanctuary. He did not forget the REVIEW however. On inquiry we learned he was detained at home by an attack of rheumatism. We hope he may soon be out again.

SENECA ARNOLD, the vigilant bridge watchman, has given another evidence of the wisdom of his selection for the position, as well as his practical interest in the traveling public, by placing a powerful light at the Towanda entrance to the bridge, so arranged that it throws its beams to the eastern extremity. The improvement will be appreciated by drivers who are compelled to cross the bridge at night and will be the means of preventing many collisions and accidents.

We are indebted to our friend FRANK GRADY, fashionable tailor, for the following items in regard to Spring fashions: The Spring styles for gentlemen's dress have taken quite a departure—the broad rimmed hat, long hair high shirt collar, loose coat with broad padded shoulders, long vests, loose slouchy trousers and big wide shoes, so long in vogue, have now given way to the narrow rimmed hat, short hair, lower shirt collar, small coat with narrow shoulders, short vests, close fitting pantaloons and the small narrow shoes.

The Ladies Missionary Society of Christ Church will meet for work this afternoon at two o'clock, in the lecture room. The officers for the present year are as follows:

President.—Mrs. DR. LADD.
Vice Pres.—Mrs. E. O. MACFARLANE.
Sec'y and Treas.—Miss SUE E. RAHM.
Committee on Work.—Mrs. WM. MIX, Mrs. J. J. GRIFFITHS, Mrs. H. C. HILDRETH, Mrs. LEWELLYN ELSBREE, Miss FANNY JEWETT.
Committee on Missionary Periodicals &c.—Miss SARAH E. RAHM, Miss ANNIE C. SMITH, Miss LIZZIE S. OWEN.

ORANGE BLOSSOMS.—There have been many brilliant and fashionable weddings in this vicinity during the past season, but like the wine at the marriage in Cana, the most enjoyable and pleasant of all of them was the last one. We refer, of course, to the marriage of Miss EMILY JOSEPHINE, daughter of L. J. CULVER, Esq., and PHILIP C. GORI, of New York city. The ceremony was performed by Rev. C. F. KELLEY, of this place, in a beautifully impressive manner, while the modest yet dignified demeanor of the twain who were being made one, as they took upon themselves the solemn obligations, elicited the profound admiration of the guests assembled to witness the nuptials. The passages from Holy Writ as well as the admirable extempore remarks by the officiating Priest added interest to the occasion, and we have no doubt deepened conviction in the sanctity of the marital relation. The bride who is both beautiful and accomplished, was becomingly attired in a dress of pale blue silk, and could not have looked more charming. The groom is a fine looking young gentleman who gave unmistakable evidence of culture and superior intellect. He was educated in Paris and Germany and speaks several different languages fluently. The guests were mostly relatives and near neighbors. Among those present were the following: Mrs. ABRAM PATTERSON, Mrs. DEWING, Mr. and Mrs. J. E. PIOLLET, Col. PIOLLET, Mr. and Mrs. P. POWELL, Mr. and Mrs. JAS. WOOD and daughter MARY, Mr. and Mrs. LEWIS KILMER, Mr. and Mrs. WM. PATTERSON, and Mrs. H. HORTON, Mr. and Mrs. W. M. SHORES, Mr. and Mrs. OSBORNE, Mr. and Mrs. E. J. NEWELL and daughter, Mrs. D. MEEHAN, Miss GEORGIE MOWRY, Miss LENORA OWEN, Miss CARRIE MORGAN, Dr. REED, R. H. LANING, E. G. OWEN, LOUIS, JOHN and VICTOR PIOLLET.

The refreshments, like the other appointments, could not have been excelled.

The bride received some handsome and valuable presents.

The bridal party took train 15 for New York, where they will reside for the present. We wish them abundant happiness and a long and prosperous wedded life.

The News Condensed.

The profits of Sing Sing Prison for February were $2,029.

Rev. J. F. Ware, an eminent Unitarian clergyman, died in Boston on Sunday.

The total number of bills and joint resolutions introduced during the present Congress is 7,664.

Carl Schurz has accepted an invitation to attend a public dinner in his honor by prominent citizens. The date has not been fixed.

The Revere Insurance Company of Boston, has decided to retire from business and has reinsured risks in fire insurance association of London.

With the present movement of money to New York there are indications of a greater stringency in Boston. Banks are accommodating their customers at 5 and 6 per cent for time loans while call loans are stiff at eight.

The New York police are making efforts to suppress pool playing by boys. Seventeen liquor dealers, and thirty pool players arrested yesterday, were arraigned. The former were held for trial and the latter fined.

Six thousand three hundred and forty-eight persons died in New York since New Year's day. This mortality is unprecedented. Were it continual in proportion the deaths for the year would be 38,000 against 31,000 last year. The increase is attributed to the severe season. The mortality throughout the country is represented as unusually large.

MARRIED.

GORI—CULVER.—At the home of bride's parents in Wysox, March 1, 1881, by Rev. Charles F. Kelley. Philip C. Gori, youngest son of the late Ottaviano Gori, of New York city, and Emily Josephine Culver.
