Mrs. IRA B. HUMPHREY has been seriously ill for some time past, but we are glad to hear is getting better now.

L. BLACKMAN, of Towanda township, has rented Mr. VANDORN's house in the Third ward and will move in the first of April.

Town Lots For Sale on reasonable terms. Apply to JOHN W. MIX, Towanda, Pa. Office, North side Public square.

WEATHER INDICATIONS FOR TO-DAY.—Fair, preceded in extreme northern parts by occasional rain or snow, stationary or lower temperature.

There appears to be quite a demand for dwelling houses this Spring. The best and quickest way to secure either a house or a tenant is to advertise in the REVIEW.

Mr. J. D. SWAIN, whose wife was buried yesterday, has himself been an invalid for several years past, and had hard work to keep his small family supplied with the necessities of life under the most favorable circumstances and the protracted illness of his wife had run him in debt. To relieve him, and at the same time give expression to practical christian sympathy, Policeman DIMMOCK and S. DECKER submitted the case to some of our good people and raised the generous sum of $111 to relieve his present financial embarrassment.

We notice in the show window of BEMENT & DAVENPORT some exquisitely painted cards, the work of Mrs. W. N. EASTABROOK. There are twelve of them and each consists of bunches of flowers most delicately arranged around an inscription which reads "Patriarchs, Souvenir 1881." We are informed that "Patriarch" is the name of a social club of twelve gentlemen of whom Mr. EASTABROOK is one, and that upon the occasion of their meeting at Mr. EASTABROOK's home these beautiful cards were presented to them by the lady whose work they are. They certainly are very choice bits of nature, and prove Mrs. E. to possess great merit as an artist, a fact which is becoming to be fully appreciated by her friends.—Elmira Adv.

Mr. E. formerly resided in this place.

The sale of the GOODRICH property has at last been consummated and a deed executed.—M. H. LANING was the purchaser and immediately presented it to his daughter, Mrs. C. B. PORTER. The purchase includes not only the real estate, but a large amount of lawn fixtures, all the carpets, chandeliers, large mirror, one bed-room set, furnace, range, &c. The price paid was $9425. It is not often that a seller of property refuses the money for it, but in this instance the heirs stipulated that the larger portion of the purchase money shall remain as a lien on the property. To this the purchaser reluctantly consented.—Mr. PORTER is to take possession about the first of May. We congratulate him and his good wife on securing for a home one of the finest residences in Towanda, which has been greatly enhanced in value by the judicious expenditure of money in keeping it in the very best repair, as well as by the display of unusual aesthetic taste in all the appointments of the elegant premises.

THE INAUGURATION.

The inaugural ceremonies at Washington passed off pleasantly yesterday. There was a great crowd of people in the city.

President GARFIELD will probably send his Cabinet nominations to the Senate today, but at a late hour last night the selection had not been absolutely determined.

The press without distinction of party highly endorse President GARFIELD's inaugural. The inaugural ball was a perfect success. Six thousand persons were present.
