

The following is a pretty plain and terse speech for the Railroad magnates to digest. It was delivered the other day by Ex-Governor Washburn of Maine, who is himself the president of a railroad company, and was present at a hearing on railroad monopoly before a committee of the Legislature of that State. Among other things, Ex-Governor Washburn said:

And now, gentlemen, all we ask is justice in this matter, that the monopolies in this State shall not discriminate against the smaller enterprises. The time has come in this country when the large corporations are devouring the smaller ones—property centering in the hands of the few. The gigantic railroad monopolies are controlling the price of property and produce by pooling freights and tariffs. One small railroad company after another is being swallowed up. The giant monster centralization is fast destroying the liberties of the people, and we must see one railroad after another lose its identity. It is true we become alarmed. The people in many of the Western States are legislating against railroad monopolists: they have been forced to it as a matter of self-preservation. The railroad monopolists have become so strong in this nation that they can elect Legislatures, Congresses and Presidents, and control them, too. They frame the laws of the land, and the people have a right to be relieved. They demand it at the doors of the legislative halls, and they will have it—and that speedily. If they cannot get it through legislation they will appeal to that mighty and omnipotent force which always prevails under like circumstances. I am no alarmist or extremist. I am interested in railroads, but I am compelled to accept the lawful truths which are forced upon me.

The tendency of legislation at the present time is toward the destruction of the smaller enterprises and corporations and in the interest of the monopoly. The great middle class is being crushed out of existence, and society is being divided into two classes—the very rich few and the dependent and pauperized mass.

The President's chief objection to the Refunding bill was the fifth section which has been severely criticised, and was objected to by Secretary Sherman. In closing his veto message, the President says:

In short, I cannot but regard the fifth section as a step in the direction of the destruction of the national banking system. Our country, after a long period of business depression, has just entered upon a career of unexampled prosperity. The withdrawal of currency from circulation by the national banks and the enforced winding up of banks in consequence, would inevitably bring serious embarrassments and disaster to the business of the country. Banks of issue are essential instruments of modern commerce. If the present efficient and admirable system of banking is broken down, it will inevitably be followed by a recurrence to other inferior methods of banking. Any measure looking to such a result will be a disturbing element in our financial system. It will destroy confidence and surely check the growing prosperity of the country.

Believing that the measure for the refunding of the national debt is not necessarily connected with the national banking law, and that any refunding act would defeat its own object if it imperilled the national banking system, or seriously impaired its usefulness, and being convinced that section five of the bill before me would, if it should become a law, work great harm, I herewith return the bill to the House for that further consideration which is provided for in the constitution

Eight thousand acres of land in Lackawaxen township, Pike county, Penna., were sold by the Sheriff last Friday for $13,000. When the Erie Railway was in course of construction the value of the same property was estimated at $200,000.

HOMOEOPATHIC

LUNG SYRUP.

This remedy is something new, both as to name and composition. This is one of the wonders of the world. This Syrup, I claim, is better and more effective than any other ever offered to the people of America or any other country, and what I say of this I can prove. This Syrup, like the Pills, is harmless and safe. It contains no opium or other narcotic poison, like the most Syrup, and is not disagreeable to take. Any child will take it. And it will cure any and all inflammations arising from Cold. It is superior to all others in every respect and especially for the following reasons:

- 1st. It will cure Croup every time.
- 2d. It will cure Inflammation of the Lungs.
- 3d. It will cure Quinsy.
- 4th. It will cure Whooping Cough.
- 5th. It will cure Bronchitis.
- 6th. It will cure Hoarseness.
- 7th. It will cure Sore Throat.
- 8th. It will cure any Cold.
- 9th. It will cure Congestion of the Lungs.
- 10th. It will cure any Cough.
- 11th. It will cure Scarlet Fever.
- 12th. It is the best remedy that any one can take for Consumption, and if taken in the first stage I will guarantee a cure.
- 13th. It is perfectly safe for all ages as there is nothing in its composition that can harm a child.

SALERATUS

Which is the same thing.
Impure Bicarb Soda or Saleratus (which is the same thing) is of a slightly dirty white color. It may appear white, examined by itself, but a comparison with Church & Co's "ARM AND HAMMER" BRAND will show the difference.
See that your Saleratus and Baking Soda is white and PURE, as should be ALL SIMILAR SUBSTANCES used for food.

THE LEADING AMERICAN NEWS-PAPER.

The New York Tribune FOR 1881.

The Largest Circulation Among the Best People.

During the past year the New York Tribune reached the largest circulation it ever attained, with the single exception of a short period in the first Lincoln administration. It is a larger circulation, and more widely distributed over the whole country than any ever enjoyed by any other newspaper in the United States. This fact may be taken as the verdict of the American people on the Tribune's political force, its fidelity to sound principles, and its merits as a newspaper.

For 1881, the Tribune will try to deserve equally well of the public. What and how much it did for the success of General Garfield it is content to let earnest Republicans tell. It now hopes to give to his Administration a discriminating support as effective as its efforts for his election.

The Tribune will labor for, and it confidently expects the incoming Administration to promote, a free and fair suffrage, South and North, sound money, protection to Home Industry, judicious liberality in Internal Improvements, and a Civil Service conducted on business principles, on the theory of elevating, not of ignoring or degrading politics.

Every citizen who helped to bring in this Administration should watch its course. The events to be recorded in the Tribune for 1881 will therefore have a peculiar interest. The year promises besides to show whether the South will still sacrifice every thing to solidify; and whether the Democratic party after twenty years of disloyalty and defeat, will dissolve or reform. Abroad it will show whether England can compose Ireland; whether the Republic in France, without the support of the leaders who established it, can stand alone; whether the Turk can longer pollute Europe. In Science it promises such practical triumphs as the use of electricity for gas, new modes of heating, and new forms of power in place of steam. In Literature and Art it offers the very flower of our nineteenth century development; in Religion, a concentration of force, and union of organization on simpler creeds and better work.

No intelligent man will be willing to live through the year without reading of these things; and he will be wise to look for them in the journal which has long enjoyed the distinction of the largest circulation among the best people. This position the Tribune secures and means to retain by becoming the medium of the best thought and the voice of the best conscience of the time; by keeping abreast of the highest progress, favoring the freest discussion, hearing all sides, appealing always to the best intelligence and the purest morality, and refusing to cater to the tastes of the vile, or the prejudices of the ignorant.

The well-known special features of the Tribune will be sedulously maintained. Its Agricultural Department will remain the fullest and best. The Household and the Young Folks' Department, the literary, scientific and religious features, the standard market reports, will all be kept up, and, as opportunity offers, extended.

THE TRIBUNE PREMIUMS.

The Tribune has never been equalled in the substantial and permanent value of its premiums to agents and subscribers, and it adds to its list this year two of the most desirable it has ever offered. Note the following:

THE GREAT BIBLE CONCORDANCE.

Analytical Concordance to the Bible, on an entirely new plan, containing every word in alphabetical order arranged under its Hebrew or Greek original, with the literal meaning of each and its pronunciation; exhibiting 311,000 references, 118,000 beyond Cruden; marking 30,000 various readings in the New Testament; with the latest information on Biblical Geography and Antiquities, etc., etc. By Robert Young, LL. D., author of a new Literal Translation of the Hebrew and Greek Scriptures; Concise Critical Comments on the same; a Grammatical Analysis of the Minor Prophets in Hebrew; Biblical notes and queries; Hebrew Grammar, etc.

In one handsome quarto volume, containing over 1,100 three-column pages, very substantially bound in cloth. The pages and type are the same size as those of Webster's Unabridged Dictionary—the type having a beautiful, bold, clear face, making it more easily read even than that of the Dictionary. The stereotype plates upon which it is printed having been made by the photo-engraving process, it is necessarily an exact fac-simile of the English work, without the abridgment or variation of a word or letter. It is at once a Concordance, a Greek, Hebrew and English Lexicon of Bible words, and a Scriptural Gazetteer, and will be as valuable to students of the Holy Word as an Unabridged Dictionary is to the general reader. Every home that has a Bible in it ought also to have this great help to Bible-reading and study. It is as well adapted to the use of the common reader as to that of the scholarly clergyman. This great work was originally published in England in October, 1879, and was sold at $15. We can now offer it in connection with the Tribune at the following remarkably low rates:

For $6 the Concordance and one copy of the Weekly Tribune five years, or five copies one year.
For $11 the Concordance and one copy of the Semi-Weekly Tribune five years, or five copies one year, or ten copies of the Weekly Tribune one year.
For $20 the Concordance and twenty copies of the Weekly Tribune one year.

The postage on the Concordance is 40 cents, which the subscriber will remit if wishing it sent by mail. Except for short distances the mail will be cheaper than the express.

Our second new premium for this year is the following:

The Library of Universal Knowledge,

Embracing Chambers's Encyclopedia complete, omitting only some of the cuts, with extensive additions by an able corps of American editors, treating about 15,000 additional topics, thoroughly Americanizing the entire book, adding to it over 25 per cent of the latest, freshest and most valuable matter, the whole making 15 Handsome Octavo Volumes of 6 by 9 1/2 inches in size, printed in large type on good, strong, calendered paper, and neatly and substantially bound in cloth.

We can offer this valuable work in connection with the Tribune as follows:

FOR $15 the Library of Universal Knowledge complete in 15 octavo volumes, substantially bound in cloth as above described, and the Weekly Tribune 5 years to one subscriber.
FOR $20 the Library of Universal Knowledge as above described, and the Semi-Weekly Tribune 5 years to one subscriber.
FOR $19 the Library of Universal Knowledge as above described, and ten copies of the Weekly Tribune one year.
FOR $28 the Library of Universal Knowledge as above described, and twenty copies of the Weekly Tribune one year.

Five volumes of the work are now ready, the sixth is nearly through the press, and the rest will rapidly follow. It will be sent by mail or express at the subscriber's expense. The postage, if sent by mail, will be 21 cents per volume. In packages, by express, they can be had much cheaper.

PROMPT WORK.

To induce quick work for this great premium we make the following most extraordinary offer: With the first 2,000 orders received for the Library of Universal Knowledge we will send FREE, as a present from the Tribune, Macaulay's History of England, in three handsome volumes, printed on large type and good paper, and neatly bound in cloth.

These books, like the others, will be sent at subscriber's expense by mail or express. The postage on the three volumes will be 21 cents.

A MAGNIFICENT GIFT!

Worcester's Great Unabridged Dictionary Free!

The New York Tribune will send at subscriber's expense for freight, or deliver in New York city free, Worcester's Great Unabridged Quarto Illustrated Dictionary, bound in cloth, edition of 1879, the very latest and very best edition of that great work, to any one remitting $10 for a single five years' subscription in advance or five one year subscriptions to the Weekly, or $15 for a single five years' subscription in advance or five one year subscriptions to the Semi-Weekly, or one year's subscription to the Daily, or $30 for a single three years' subscription to the Daily Tribune.

For one dollar extra the Dictionary can be sent by mail to any part of the United States, while for short distances the express is much cheaper.
