PRICE ONE CENT.

ADDITIONAL LOCAL.

Personal.

We are under obligations to Mrs. WM. PATTERSON, of Wysox, for a sample of canned pears, which took the premium at the fair two years ago last fall. They are as perfect now as when first put up, and are regular beauties.

We notice by the Pittsburg Telegraph that JAMES R. MACFARLANE, late of this place, was on the 2d inst. admitted to practice as an attorney in the Court of Common Pleas of that county.

J. BILL MEANS and wife of Sayre were calling on some of their friends in town yesterday.

Miss CHASE, the gifted young elocutionist who so charmed all who had the pleasure of hearing her on the occasion of her recent appearance in this place, has consented to give another entertainment here one week from this evening. The simple announcement of the fact ought to fill Mercur Hall.

The solid men of Waverly were represented in town yesterday by the following well known business men: G. W. FISH, J. B. FLOYD, J. T. SAWYER, S. W. SLAUGHTER, and lawyer SHOEMAKER.

O. H. LOOMIS of Meshoppen was in Towanda yesterday.

Representative ACKLEY of Sullivan county was in town yesterday on his way to the seat of government.

THOMAS CARNEY, Esq., the original proprietor of the city of Emerson, a thriving place of 3000 inhabitants in Manitoba, and who is Mayor of the city and a member of the Canada Legislature, has lately paid a visit to his friends here and at Monroe and Ulster. He emigrated from this county thirty years ago, and has become quite wealthy.

We notice the following Towandians registered at the Continental in Philadelphia yesterday: D. A. OVERTON, Hon. JOS. POWELL, R. A. MERCUR, Senator ROCKWELL of Troy is stopping at the Girard.

H. W. PATRICK, H. N. WILLIAMS HENRY STREETER and L. M. HALL, Esqs., are attending Supreme Court in Philadelphia.

Senator DAVIES started for Philadelphia Sunday evening but from a dispatch received by his wife last evening it appears that he was intercepted by a telegram summoning him to the death-bed of his brother THOMAS, at Delano. The brother was in Washington with the Senator last week and it is supposed was injured in the accident which befel the train on which ex-president HAYES was proceeding to his home in Ohio.

Mrs. A. S. ARNOLD, of East Towanda, who met with quite a serious accident last fall, has so far recovered that she has been able to visit friends in Waverly.

Ex-Sheriff J. M. SMITH and Hon. E. L. HILLS were passengers on the train wrecked near Baltimore on Saturday. Both escaped uninjured.

Miss NELLIE ALLEN, who had been visiting friends in this place for several weeks, returned to her home in East Troy last week. Miss A. has many warm admirers in Towanda and her society is greatly enjoyed here by all who have the pleasure of an acquaintance with the charming and accomplished young lady.

Mr. and Mrs. WIRT DIMMOCK, of Foot of Plane, are just experiencing the extatic joy incident to welcoming the first-born. A ten pound boy. How are you, grand pa ASA.

A good house to rent in the Third ward.—Inquire at this office.

The newly elected constables appeared before Judge MORROW yesterday, took the prescribed oath and gave bonds for the faithful performance of duties.

The ladies of the Church of the Messiah will hold a sociable at the residence of GEO. W. BLACKMAN, corner Fourth and Elizabeth streets, this evening. All are cordially invited to attend.

Doctor HOLLISTER says while it is true he will spend the first week of each month in Tunkhannock, he desires us to state that his office in Towanda will not be closed during such visits.

Mrs. DANIEL DRUMMOND, daughter of the late SHEPARD PIERCE, of Wysox, died at the residence of her daughter, Mrs. ED SWEET, in Monroe, at 3 o'clock yesterday morning, aged 64 years. Deceased was a sister of Mrs. W. H. MORGAN and S. S. PIERCE, of this place.

WEATHER INDICATIONS FOR TO-DAY.—Clear, followed by increasing cloudiness, with occasional rain.

The News Condensed.

A terrible storm is reported on the Scottish coast.

Gen. Gaefield says there will be no extra session of Congress.

A fire at Cincinnati yesterday destroyed property valued at $150,000.

It is said the President will nominate Stanley Mathews to be Justice of the Supreme Court.

There was an unsuccessful attempt to burn the Kansas Insane asylum at Topeka Saturday night.

More than 10,000 tons of grain were shipped from St. Louis, Saturday, down the Mississippi river.

Gen. Sherman heads the Northern subscription towards the proposed cotton exposition at Atlanta, Ga., with $2,000.

St. Patrick's Catholic Church at Peori, Ill., was destroyed by fire Friday morning. The building cost $50,000 two years ago.

The Democratic Senators are endeavoring to arrange the standing committees so that the organization can be moved early this week.

A bill is pending in the Connecticut Legislature to make railroad companies responsible for fires originating from locomotive sparks.

While excavating under the old Norfolk market on Buckingham street, Halifax, the workmen struck a vein of gold quartz from which several rich samples were secured.

A Pittsburg dispatch reports that the coal miners strike in the Connellsville coke regions is ended and the miners returned to work without securing the advance demanded.

Reports from various points of the Northwest state that the snow blockade still continues. Nine trains are stuck between Hyde Park and Kensington, fourteen miles south of Chicago.

The loss of life by the recent earthquake on the island of Ischia is appalling. One hundred and two bodies have been found at Cassamaciota, and many others are under the ruins of the buildings. In the village district of Lacco alone thirteen buildings were destroyed.

Fifty members of the National Woman's Christian Temperance Union will visit the White House to-day and present to the President the portrait of Mrs. Hayes, recently completed by the New York artist, Mr. Hunting. President Grafield will accept it on behalf of the Nation, and it will be hung upon the wall in one of the principal rooms of the Mansion.
