Personal.

LOUIS STEELE, of Philadelphia, is visiting at his uncle's J. J. GRIFFITHS.

D. C. DEWITT and I. M'PERSON are attending Supreme court in Philadelphia.

Mr. WELLS, night clerk at the Ward House, is laid up with rheumatism.

G. B. DAVISON, the energetic general agent of the popular Eureka Mower, is spending a few days in town.

GEORGE KIRBY's baby has been very ill, but the parents now hope the little fellow is out of danger.

WELLINGTON WHITTAKER has been appointed postmaster of Wysox, in place of C. J. EASTABROOK, resigned.

Mr. GEORGE COSPER and Miss FANNIE NOBLE, of Troy, spent Sunday in town as the guests of Mrs. F. R. BRAUND. They returned Monday afternoon.

L. J. CULVER has gone to Washington to spend a few days and will probably make himself familiar with Commissioner LEDUC's methods during his stay in the National capitol.

Little JOSIE SWARTS is patiently enduring a siege of scarlet fever. She is under the medical care of Mrs. COVERDALE, electrician, and is having the dreaded disease in a very mild form.

MICHAEL KIRWIN, of Towanda township, who met with a painful accident early in the winter by the crushing of a finger in his corn sheller, is able to be around again although he still bears unmistakable evidence of the physical pain he has suffered and is still enduring.

Capt. WILT, while enjoying his trip to Washington, found the hurried journey and fatiguing march too much for his physical endurance, and has been confined to his house under the doctor's care ever since his return. His illness is the more embarrassing from the fact that his wife is also on the "sick list."

Our young friend, S. S. DELANO, son of O. L. DELANO, of this place, is filling a responsible and lucrative position in Detroit, Mich. He gave his sisters gratifying evidence of his love the other day, by forwarding them a handsome piano. Not every boy is so thoughtful and considerate of his family after he gets away from under the home roof, but the example is worthy of imitation.

The gentleman particularly referred to in the appended item from the Elmira Advertiser is a brother of our good friends and enterprising citizens of Wells, MORRIS and C. L. SHEPARD:

Mr. Lew Shepard, who carried on grocery business in Elmira some time ago, and later at Daggett's Mills is in a fine position in California with an uncle named Judson, rated in the mercantile agency as an octillionaire. Mrs. Shepard is a sister of Mrs. Dix W. Smith of this city, both being daughters of Mr. John Roy, at the State Line."

WEATHER INDICATIONS FOR TO-DAY.—Cloudy with rain, stationary or higher temperature.

The residences of W. B. DODGE and O. A. BALDWIN, in the Third ward, have been connected by telephone and the two families can now enjoy a visit without being subjected to the inconvenience of passing over icy sidewalks and muddy crossings.

Mrs. DRUMMOND, whose death was announced yesterday, will be buried this afternoon. Relatives and friends will meet at Mrs. SWEET'S in Monroe, at 11 o'clock this morning and escort the remains to Wysox, and the funeral services will be held in the Brick church at one o'clock this afternoon.

"The Orphans," is the title of a new painting in the window of BENDER, the artist. The piece gives evidence of rare artistic talent, and reflects great credit upon the genius and aesthetic taste of the artist. Were it a production of some of the old masters it would bring a small fortune.

C. L. STEWART informs us that notwithstanding the high price he paid for Mr. LONDON'S steers, he had no trouble in disposing of them at a handsome profit at White Haven, the butchers taking them in preference to western cattle. The fortunate purchaser promised to send Mr. LONDON a generous cut from one of the animals when slaughtered, that he may test the quality of the beef.

Four rooms, suitable for small family, to let. Inquire at this office.

I have a convenient dwelling house in 2nd ward to let. F. J. CALKINS.

A good kitchen girl wanted immediately at Jennings' hotel.

FOR SALE.—A lot of very fine corn stalks, and a small quantity of hay. Inquire of H. W. NOBLES.

For sale cheap on easy terms. One span horses, one single horse, two top buggies. Inquire of G. S. ACKLEY.

The News Condensed.

President Gowan of the Reading railroad returned from Europe on Saturday.

L. B. Boomer, the great bridge builder of the West, died suddenly in New York Sunday.
