New maple sugar manufactured by CHARLIE BEERS, of Orwell, is on sale at FITCH'S.

In September last, a young man made his appearance at Moravia, N. Y., and gave his name as CHARLES MCCONNELL. He has been there most of the time until last Saturday, and has worked at making cigars, and odd jobs around. His reputation since he has been there has not been of the best. A few weeks since a description was sent of a man by the name of HENRY SAVERCOOL, who had broken jail at Towanda, Pa., to Officer J. F. WALKER, and after a time WALKER became convinced that his name was here in the person of MCCONNELL. On Friday night Chief-of-Police BURNS, of Towanda, arrived, and on Saturday morning, the man was identified and arrested, the case being adjourned to the 15th in order to give time to get a requisition. His real name is HENRY SAVERCOOL and Chief BURNS stated that he had served one term in the State prison and was lodged in jail in July last for grand larceny, on the complaint of the Lehigh Valley railroad company. He escaped in September last, and the company have been in search of him since and are bound to bring him, with others, to justice. SAVERCOOL, alias MCCONNELL, was married to a young lady in that place about a month since, and has another wife living in Pennsylvania, so he is quite liable to remain in confinement, under the different charges for some time.—Owego Times.

We clip the following notice of the death of Mr. THOS. DAVIS, from the Hazleton Bulletin of the 9th inst.:

ANOTHER VICTIM OF THE COLLISION.—Mr. Thos. Davis, a teacher of the East Mahanoy township schools, who was injured in the railway collision near Meyersville, on Monday, Feb. 28th, died last evening from the result of his injuries. Mr. Davis, it will be remembered, was on the coal engine, coming down to Bowman's patch, where he was teaching, and was struck by the flying debris, several ribs broken, and internally injured. Mr. Davis was a married man, and leaves a wife and family to mourn his loss. He was highly respected by all who knew him. Last year he occupied the position of Superintendent of Mahanoy township schools. Since the accident he suffered severe pain up to the time of his death. He will be buried on Thursday; interment at Pottsville. Mr. Davis insured his life for a thousand dollars in the Era Insurance Company, about a week before the accident. State Senator William T. Davis of Bradford county is a brother of the deceased.—Parker's Tri-Weekly.

Mr. Davis was injured at the same accident when our townsman Mr. John Gicking was so seriously injured. Mr. Davis' wounds were thought trifling while Mr. Gicking's life was despaired of. Mr. Davis was known to many of our citizens; he was at one time book keeper for Wm. Taggart at Mt Pleasant. He was a man of rare intellectual attainment and a gentleman whose every action was above reproach. He was a good citizen, a warm friend, an affectionate husband and dutiful father. He leaves a wife and several children.
