

DAILY TOWANDA REVIEW.

VOLUME II, NO. 177.

TOWANDA, PA., TUESDAY, MARCH 15, 1881.

PRICE ONE CENT.

ADDITIONAL LOCAL.

Personal.

Miss MARTHA J. LONG, of Athens, was in town yesterday.

Mr. CLAGHORN, the energetic young President of the S. L. & S. R. R. Co., is in town.

Editor BULLOCK, of the Canton Sentinel, paid us a visit on Saturday.

The Missis ELSBREE, who have been spending the winter in the west, are home again.

J. S. TOME, principal owner of the stock of the Towanda Bridge Co., was in town Saturday.

Postmaster POWELL and wife went to Bath yesterday, to visit Mr. P.'s sister, who is seriously ill.

The friends of Capt ABBOTT will sympathize with him in the death of one of his little boys, who fell a victim to that dreadful scourge, scarlet fever, on Saturday.

Miss ELLA CATON has been under the doctor's care for some time past, and her many friends will be pleased to learn that her symptoms now give promise of a speedy restoration of accustomed health.

Mr. WOODFOUD has purchased the interest of Mr. VANDORN in the boot and shoe business, and will hereafter conduct the store alone. He has engaged ANSON WITTER as clerk.

N. N. BETTS, Colonel OVERTON, Senator DAVIES, L. M. HALL, and a number of witnesses in the suit between the county and the bridge company, took the early train yesterday morning for Wellsboro.

Major G. B. OVERTON has admitted his son WILLIAM as a partner in his coal business at Olean, N. Y. WILL'S friends in Towanda, who remember him as a bright and promising lad, will congratulate him on his business prospects.

A. B. BOWMAN, late of the Dushore Review, and one of the most enterprising newspaper men in the State, has purchased the Canton Sentinel, and will hereafter conduct that sheet, which already enjoys an enviable reputation among its numerous patrons.

A party of young men will leave Troy about the first of April for Dakota, having entered into an agreement to work on a farm there during the coming season. The employer advances enough to pay their fare to the territory. Our accomplished correspondent at that place is among the number.

CHAS. F. TAYLOR has taken a situation in the large wholesale crockery establishment of SHERWOOD & GOLDEN, Utica, N. Y. While we regret to part with CHARLIE, we are pleased to know he has secured a lucrative position, which we are confident he will fill with fidelity. He will enter upon the discharge of his new duties sometime in April.

S. C. ADAMS has opened a coal yard at Syracuse, N. Y., and in a double column advertisement in the city papers, explains the merits of the popular Loyal Sock coal. SAM is posted in the coal trade, and we have no doubt will succeed. He certainly deserves success, and the people of that ancient city can make no mistake in taking Loyal Sock.

Although one of the youngest practitioners at the bar of this county, our young townsman, EDWIN D. BUFFINGTON, has won a very important suit,—one involving his future bliss. We refer to his approaching nuptials with Miss SALLIE KINNEY, the beautiful and accomplished daughter of Mr. HUTCHINGS KINNEY, of Sheshequin. The ceremony will come off at the residence of the bride's uncle, MR. H. L. HORTON, No. 144 West 57th st. MR. B. left for New York last evening, and when he returns will bring his bride with him. We most heartily congratulate ED. on his good fortune in securing for a life partner one so well calculated to make his life happy, and we bespeak for his young wife a most cordial reception in this place, where she is not altogether a stranger.

JOHN ADAMS says the frost has not yet injured his ice and he has no fears of a short crop.

St. Patrick's Day will be observed in this place by a meeting under the auspices of the Irish Land League, to be addressed by Father KELLEY.

IMPORTANT TO TRAVELERS.—Special inducements are offered you by the BURLINGTON ROUTE. It will pay you to read their advertisement to be found elsewhere in this issue.

CHARLES CARTER, the colored man who was injured in October last by a barrel of ashes falling from the third story of Mercur block, and who had been confined to his bed ever since, died at the residence of his father, JOHN CARTER, Main street, yesterday morning. The funeral will be held at the house this afternoon.

The "blood hounds and donkey," advertised among the attractions of "Uncle Tom's Cabin," or something else, caused a noticeable absence of students and other young people from the very excellent, instructive and entertaining lecture on Geology, by MR. MACFARLANE, at the Institute last evening. Those who did attend enjoyed a rich intellectual feast and were highly edified.

We most cheerfully endorse every word of the following complimentary notice, which we find in the last Owego Record: "The Delavan House in Elmira ranks among the best hotels of the State of New York. MR. C. T. SMITH, the genial proprietor, is quite well known in Owego, having been a few years ago owner of the Ahwaga House. His reputation as a caterer to the public is of the best, and his long experience in the business at Towanda, Owego, Bethlehem, and other places, secured for him a large and favorable acquaintance with the traveling public. The Delavan is doing a prosperous business which is fully deserved. The table is unexceptionable and the beds are unsurpassed for cleanliness and comfort, while attentive servants prevail in the various departments. We commend the Delavan to the best consideration of the public. See advertisement in another column."

WEATHER INDICATIONS FOR TO-DAY.—Fair, followed by increasing cloudiness, with stationary or lower barometer.
