Mrs. JOHN SULLIVAN, of Lombard street, is visiting friends in Sullivan county.

W. S. NEVINS, of Waverly, was visiting in town a short time yesterday.

C. M. BUFFINGTON went to New York last night to be present at the marriage of his brother, which occurs this evening.

Our young friend ANDREW DELPEUCH, of Sheshequin, has gone to Iowa to take charge of a farm which his father owns, near Nevada in that state. He is a practical farmer and an industrious worthy gentleman. We wish him success in his venture.

A Washington special to the Philadelphia Press yesterday expresses the opinion that Capt. H. P. GOODRICH will be appointed to the vacant Surveyorship at that Port. The dispatch says Senator CAMERON favors him.

The "for rent" department of the REVIEW is frequently consulted nowadays. If you have property to let or if you desire to hire, advertise.

LOST OR STOLEN.—A silver watch with leather chain and two little keys. The finder will be well paid by returning it to the owner, E. W. SMITH.

FITCH has new maple sugar which is not only genuine, but was made in Orwell, where the art of sugar making is understood and practiced in perfection.

The day of meeting of the ladies' missionary society of Christ Church has been changed. It will meet this week and hereafter on Friday, at 2 p. m., in the lecture room.

There are said to be a good many persons in this place who pay a government tax as dealers in the ardent, who forget to supply themselves with the license required by state law. In other words, the agents of "Uncle Sam" are more particular in collecting the revenues than the borough and state officials.

The remains of DAN McDONALD, formerly of Sullivan county, but who had resided in Colorado for the past five years, passed through this place on their way to Dushore for interment yesterday. The body was accompanied by MILES McDONALD, a brother of the deceased, and whose family have been spending the winter in Sullivan county.

We did not attend the performance of Uncle Tom's Cabin at Mercur Hall Monday evening, but those who were there pronounce it the best representation of the popular story of slavery times ever witnessed here. The hall was literally packed. By the way, two performances not on the bills came off while the company were here. The bloodhounds got loose and had a fight, and two of the artists got married.

A branch of the Irish National Land League has been organized in this place, and the following officers elected:

Vice-President—WM. WELSH.
Recording Secretary—JAMES KELLY.
Financial Secretary—JOHN SCANLAN.
Corresponding Secretary—ED. GINNANE.
Treasurer—DANIEL CULLINAN.
Executive Committee—WM. HENRY, DOMENICO PETTINATTO, THOMAS F. KILHOLLON, JOHN CANTWELL, LAWRENCE RICE.

"SOMETIMES CORRECT."—The editors of the REVIEW do not claim to be infallible, but do insist that they take extraordinary pains to be reasonably accurate in giving the local and current news, and flatter themselves that, considering the limited time and imperfect facilities they enjoy, their reports are as nearly correct as those of most other journals.—Conscious of our honest endeavors to furnish a reliable local paper, we felt somewhat hurt the other evening on hearing a friend and subscriber remark to one who does not take the paper, "The REVIEW gets things correct sometimes." Such compliments are not encouraging after a year and a-half of earnest, poorly remunerated effort to establish a daily which has come to be quite generally acknowledged a necessity here. We beg to assure our friend that if he will carefully watch our columns and be as particular to give credit for correct and valuable items, as he is to criticize our failings, we feel confident he will not again permit himself to make such ungenerous and damaging remarks, and that he will be constrained to confess that "the REVIEW is not only sometimes," but as a rule very accurate in its statements. That it is read is evidenced by his own criticism.

Miss LILLIAN CHASE was not greeted with an audience at all commensurate with her merits last evening, but the fact did not in the least detract from the very interesting programme and every selection was rendered with as much animation as though the Hall had been crowded. Miss CHASE is a born artist and enters thoroughly into the spirit of her theme, forgetting self in the perfect impersonation of the characters she selects. In many of her performances she is absolutely without an equal, and at no distant day will be the acknowledged Queen of her profession. She has both talent and culture and cannot fail of winning success she so pre-eminently merits.

You can get everything in the grocery and canned goods line, except poor and stale goods, at Swartz & Gordon's. Every article on their shelves is of the best quality, new and fresh.

IMPORTANT TO TRAVELERS.—Special inducements are offered you by the BURLINGTON ROUTE. It will pay you to read their advertisement to be found elsewhere in this issue.

St. Patrick's Day will be observed in this place by a meeting under the auspices of the Irish Land League, to be addressed by Father KELLEY.
