GEORGE STEVENS is in Chicago.

JOHN KIRWIN has removed from Long Valley to this place.

JAMES ARCHBOLD of Owego is spending a few weeks in West Franklin.

Judge HENRY WEBB of Kansas is visiting his brother, Hon. J. H. WEBB and other relatives in Smithfield and vicinity.

Miss EMMA MILLER, of Lackawanna county, is visiting her sister, Mrs. C. T. HALLOWELL, wife of the pastor of the Baptist church.

HARRISON ALLEN of Waverly, has purchased the interests of PHILLIPS brothers in the firm known as PHILLIPS BROS. & NEWMAN, of East Smithfield.

The ED LOOMIS store is the fourteenth store of goods that Sheriff DEAN has sold out. One of our merchants remarked the other day that he had never seen goods sold so satisfactorily to purchasers.—Troy Gazette.

Rev. J. BARTON FRENCH, pastor of the Troy Baptist Church, has adopted a son of Mrs. WEBSTER aged 5 years, who will be henceforth known as WILLIE BARTON FRENCH.

We are indebted to Mr. FITCH for a package of excellent maple sugar manufactured by C. N. BEERS, and if there is any one in this county who can beat it, we should like to see the samples.

We learn that LORENZO ACKLEY, formerly of Wyalusing, met with an accident on the Erie road Wednesday which deprived him of a toe. We did not hear the particulars.

Mrs. SEYMOUR SMITH, of Towanda, Pa., is visiting her sister, Mrs. JOSEPH BURBANK, on Spencer Avenue, in this village.—Owego Times.

Mr. S. H. SACKET, of Towanda, has been in town this week, a guest at the Central House, returning home yesterday.—Ib.

Miss HATTIE RODGERS, of Canton, is visiting her many friends in this place. She is the guest of Miss JENNIE SMITH, on Chestnut street.

MATT W. PARSONS, of New York is registered at the Ward House.

Assistant Postmaster COOLBAUGH spent yesterday afternoon with friends in Elmira.

Miss JENNIE DEWERS entertained a few of her young friends last evening. The rain kept away some who would have otherwise attended, but all who went had a splendid time.

Miss FRANKIE ROWE and Miss AMELIA DUBERT of East Smithfield, have entered Hiram College as students. Miss DUBERT has been one of Smithfield's most successful teachers.

Deacon JAMES ELLIOTT, who is nearly 92 years old, resides in the First Ward alone in part of his own house. Last evening he received a family visit from his brethren and sisters of the Baptist church. The deacon welcomed the company in a neat speech which would have done credit to any man in his prime.

Miss FRANKIE TEARS and mother entertained a party of guests on Monday afternoon, including Prof. J. D. PHELPS, Mr. and Mrs. G. P. SEWALL, Mr. and Mrs. CONNELL, Prof. and Mrs. J. T. MCCOLLOM and others. Miss TEARS returns to Cazenovia next week to attend the Seminary under Prof. PHELPS' management.—Troy Gazette.

H. P. MORSE advertises some very eligible rooms for rent.

The attendance upon the funeral of FRANK SHAW yesterday afternoon was very large.

The Jennings house will change hands the first of next month, Mr. JENNINGS retiring and B. W. ENNIS taking his place.

We are prepared to print the revised constitution and by-laws for Odd Fellows lodges on short notice and very low.

Don't fail to hear Miss HELEN POTTER and her excellent company. New features will be introduced on their appearance the 26th.

C. L. S. C.—The time of meeting has been changed to Wednesday evening, March 23, as the president cannot attend at the time announced before.

The affairs of Troy township are in a healthy condition financially. The auditors report $685 96 in the treasury and only $131 47 in outstanding orders.

Rev. Dr. TAYLOR's subject at the Universalist Church to-morrow morning will be, "A rational religion." In the evening, "Nihilism and its victim, the murdered czar."

H. & P. PECK have sold their steam saw mill at Sylvania to THOS. and CHAS. COLONY for $2,000. This is one of the most important mills in this section and a large district is dependent on it for lumber.

Lost, somewhere on Main street or in the Five Cent store yesterday, a package of knitting work, consisting of a stocking leg, two balls of blue yarn, and knitting needles. Finder will confer a favor by returning it to this office.

The storm doors in the corridor of the Ward House have been removed. Another indication that "etherial mildness" is at hand; but a poetical disciple of VENNOR says:

There's a blizzard in the west,
So beware,
Don't put on your summer vest,
Now take care,
For when you freeze your nose,
Your finger tips and toes,
You will want your winter clothes,
So beware.

A good house to rent in the Third ward.—Inquire of Mrs. H. W. PATRICK.

WEATHER INDICATIONS FOR TO-DAY.—Cloudy, rainy; stationary or higher temperature.
