JOHNNIE CORSER is very sick.

C. M. SANDERSON arrived in town last evening.

O. D. BARTLETT, who now resides in Philadelphia, is in town.

D. R. WILLIAMS, wife and child of Carbon Run were registered at the Ward House last evening.

CHAS. P. MOORE has accepted a position with W. H. BLIGHT and will take charge of his Bradford coal yard.

From information received, we infer that one of the P. O. clerks or her agent was in Waverly Thursday evening.

Rev. WILLIAM H. KING, pastor of the Baptist church, Owego, for twenty-seven years past, will preach his last sermon as pastor to-morrow.

TREADWELL, the ubiquitous representative of the enterprising Binghamton Republican, was in town yesterday looking after the interests of that journal which is very popular here.

M. E. CHUBBUCK and wife, after spending several months at a boarding house, have decided to set up house keeping. They have taken one of Mr. KUYRENDALL'S houses on Main street.

RALPH TOZER, of Bethlehem, has been spending a few days with his brother at Athens, and was calling on friends in this place yesterday. We are pleased to note he was looking well and appeared in the best of spirits.

We clip the subjoined items from the Wellsboro Gazette of Thursday:

John F. Sanderson, Esq., a member of the Towanda school board, visited the Wellsboro High School last Friday, and expressed himself as highly pleased with what he saw during his hasty tour of observation.

Mr. Geo. Hill, an old and respected resident of Burlington, Bradford county, has been spending a few days in town. At the ripe age of seventy-three he does not appear more than fifty. The principal recreation of his declining years is angling, at which he is an expert.

Mr. Geo. Estell, Jr., clerk in the Prothonotary's office at Towanda, made the floor of the Gazette office creak on Tuesday. His avoirdupois is only 258 pounds. Bob Austin, whose place of business is underneath, thought that one of our "sitting elephants" had broken loose. A subpoena duces tecum brought Mr. Estell and his grip sack to Wellsboro.

Col. J. F. Means, a life-long Democrat and prominent citizen of Towanda, made a pleasant call at the Gazette office on Monday. The Colonel met with an accident at Lawrenceville last Friday evening, which has lamed him considerably but we trust not seriously. He attempted to board the Wellsboro train after it had been started, but was unable to maintain his hold and was thrown to one side of the track, striking heavily upon his side. He returned to Towanda on Tuesday.

Have you tasted "chips?"

Fresh Chips at FITCH'S this morning.

We hear that a large company from Du-shore will attend the HELEN POTTER entertainment this evening. Town-people who have not yet secured seats had better do so at once. The programme will be entirely new.

The estimate in which Bradford county horses (and babies) are held, may be inferred from a remark of a little boy in this county, who said recently: "I would not sell my little sister for a hundred dollars or a million dollars, or a real horse!"

The sheriff's sale of the ED. LOOMIS stock concluded on Tuesday, the amount realized being a little rising of $4,700 which was considerably below the inventory, which was quite unsatisfactory as an index of the value of the goods. The sale was conducted on the part of Sheriff PETER J. DEAN in a highly creditable and strictly just manner and buyers have been well satisfied. Sheriff DEAN has made many friends by his straightforward uprightness and courtesy during this sale.

Bradford county never had a more popular sheriff than PETER J. DEAN.—Troy Gazette.

Hon. LYMAN TRUMAN, one of the oldest and best known citizens of the Southern Tier died at his residence in Owego Thursday morning, at the advanced age of 76 years. In concluding a sketch of the deceased, the Owego Times says: "A great man has passed away—one who has left his impress for good on his native county and State. When the village of Owego was destroyed in 1849, Mr. TRUMAN gave form and infused energy into the citizens, so that rebuilding was commenced, and the Ahwaga House and the brick stores of Front street soon rose out of the general ruins. Though partially withdrawn for some years from active life, his death will leave a void not easily filled. He leaves a wife, three daughters, and many brothers and sisters and their families and friends to mourn his loss."

The funeral takes place at 2 o'clock this afternoon.
