The Gazette says a match factory is talked of in Athens.

The ground was covered with snow yesterday morning, but the bright sun soon dispelled it.

The bridge suit resulted in a verdict of $20,000 with costs and interest for the bridge company.

John Lines has rented the building in Kellum block lately occupied by B. A. Pettes, and will keep a boarding house.

At the Universalist Church to-morrow morning Dr. TAYLOR'S subject will be, "Christ's word of cheer." In the evening at 7 o'clock, "The ideal and the actual."

The celebrated stallion "Little Mac," formerly owned by the late A. B. MOORE of Troy, is now the property of L. P. BLACKMAN of LeRaysville. The animal is one of the best Hambletonian horses in the county.

"Stout Hearts," is the subject of Doctor PAYNE'S lecture to be delivered before the Philomathean Society at the Institute Monday evening. We have no doubt the Doctor will have a full house, and we know those who attend will be interested and edified.

The testimony in the case of the Towanda Bridge Company vs. Bradford County was all given in yesterday. A large number of witnesses were examined on both sides, and the trial has been conducted with much ability and legal acumen. JOHN F. SANDERSON, Esq., for the bridge company, and L. M. HALL Esq. for Bradford county, ably addressed the jury yesterday, and to-day Hon. E. OVERTON, on the side of the company, and Hon. M. F. ELLIOTT, for the county, will speak. The case will probably go to the jury this afternoon.

During the progress of this important trial, in which the payment of many thousands of dollars is involved, our borough has been honored by the presence of a large number of our sister county's best citizens, who almost without exception have expressed themselves as pleased with the hospitality shown them by our people and the professional courtesy extended by the court and the bar of our county. Our village has been extolled for its rural beauty and the modest elegance and comfort of its homes, and for the indications of thrift and substantiality on every hand. Whatever may be the result, we trust and believe that the disputants will return to their homes and firesides feeling that no partiality or any undue means have been brought to bear, that justice and right have triumphed, and that the friendly relations which have always existed between the counties of Bradford and Tioga are only enhanced by the termination of this trial and its outcome.—Wellsboro Gazette.

A NOVEL MUTUAL AID SOCIETY.—The most bewildering announcement of modern times is that of the York, Pa., Marriage Mutual Aid Association for unmarried people which has been incorporated. The association is open to all unmarried persons, male or female, from the age of thirteen upwards, without regard to race, color or previous condition of servitude. Upon payment of a certain sum, fixed by a graduated schedule, the member receives a certificate which entitles him or her upon proof of marriage after the expiration of at least one year to receive from $1,000 to $5,000, according to the amount paid for membership. There are various annual dues and assessments, which are supposed to secure the financial standing of the association. It is apparent at a glance that the balance of advantages offered by the society lies decidedly with the stronger sex. A man need not run the slightest risk in joining it, for it is the blessed prerogative of his sex to propose. But in the case of the other sex the circumstances are very different. For, although to a woman whose personal disadvantages

"Have caused all hope to disappear
Of even winning man's affection," a certificate of membership in this association would add positive and palpable attractions. County Auditor U. M. PRATT, of Liberty Corners, is agent for the Association in this county. He will cheerfully explain the subject to any who may desire to secure a certificate.
