Judge MORROW has gone to Philadelphia.

WILLIAM CHAMBERLIN is still very ill at his residence on Lime Hill.

J. R. CLAGHORN, President S. L. & S. R. R. Co., is registered at the Ward House.

B. L. BALDWIN who formerly resided here and who has been living at Dushore for the past few years has removed to Athens and will take charge of the bakery there.

A. B. ALLYN and wife of Orwell left for Minnesota yesterday morning. Their objective point is Minneapolis. If suited with the country they expect to make their home in the West.

Our announcement the other morning that Mrs. J. T. SHAUT was visiting her parents in this place, proved to be a little premature, but we now have the pleasure of assuring the lady's many friends that she has actually arrived and is stopping at her father's on William street.

Dr. FLESCUTT of East Towanda has moved into the house on Center St. which has been occupied by Mr. BLAIR. We understand the doctor intends to resume the practice of medicine. He has many friends in this vicinity, and will no doubt build up an extensive practice.—Dushore Review.

We regret to learn that R. G. MILLER, who has been in the employ of M. E. ROSENFELD for a long time, is about to remove to Penn Yan, N. Y., to engage in business. REED is one of our very best citizens, and we congratulate the good people of Yates county on their excellent luck in securing him and his wife as residents. In common with all their friends here we wish them all the prosperity they desire, which cannot be more than they deserve.

A Mr. MCFARLANE of Elmira, who arrived at the Ward House last evening, was surprised and amused at the familiarity with which he was addressed by Clerk ENNIS, as he had no recollection of ever having met the gentleman before. Judge of the stranger's astonishment at being accosted several times during the evening as PAT, and being made the object of warm congratulations by persons he had never met before. The mystery was solved when Mr. MCFARLANE was informed that he is in appearance the exact counterpart of our former well-known popular townsman, PAT PHELAN, who now resides in Topeka Kan.

We find the following sketches of our Senators and Representatives in Smull's Hand Book. Though not very elaborate, they will be read with interest by our readers many of whom we presume are not aware that Senator DAVIES is a foreigner:

WILLIAM T. DAVIES, Bradford county, was born in Glamorganshire, Wales, December 20, 1831; educated at Owego Academy, New York; studied law, and is at present engaged in the practice of that profession; was district attorney of Bradford county, 1865 to 1868; Senator, 1877 to 1880, and re-elected to the Senate for a term of four years, from December, 1880.

Elisha Lewis Hillis, of Bradford county, was born in Herriek township, Bradford county, Pa., January 10, 1846; educated at Susquehanna Collegiate Institute, and at Lafayette College, at which latter institution he graduated in 1872; was brought up on a farm, but engaged in teaching, subsequently studying law; was admitted to the Bradford county bar in 1875, and now in practice.

Joseph H. Marsh, of Bradford county, was born in Pike township, Bradford county, Pa., May 7, 1822; educated in the public schools, and brought up on a farm; subsequently engaged in the manufacture of furniture, but is at present farming; elected a member of the House of Representatives, from Bradford county, in 1863, and in 1864 from Bradford and Sullivan counties; was county auditor in 1878.

Luman D. Taylor, of Bradford county, was born at Granville, Bradford county, Pa., November 28, 1820; was educated in the common schools, and engaged in school teaching; at present in the agricultural and mercantile business; was postmaster at Granville Centre about twenty-five years.

WEATHER INDICATIONS FOR TO-DAY.—Cloudy with occasional light snow, stationary or higher temperature.

Look out for "sells." It's all fools' day.

It snowed almost continuously yesterday.

The hotel registers indicate brisk business.

Fresh Halibut at RUNDELL'S market this morning.
