Personal.

W. H. and EDWARD THOMPSON have opened a law office in this place.

Mrs. A. J. EASTABROOK, who has been visiting her husband in Washington has returned.

Mrs. M. A. MCDOWELL, of Sylvania, has a calla with 10 full blossoms on at the present time.

Prof. HUTTON the efficient principal of the Waverly schools, made us a pleasant call yesterday.

A. J. EASTABROOK is spending a short furlough at his home in this place. He will return to Washington on the 15th.

JOB MORLEY, of Burlington, has purchased CHARLET BLOOM's farm, mills, stock, and farm implements, in West Burlington.

JEFF S. CAREY met with a serious accident last night. A friend of his, Mr. FRINK, who was going to leave on a train, missed the bus and JEFF volunteered to walk with him to the depot. They were walking rapidly up the track, and as it was very dark, in crossing the railroad bridge at Overton's basin CAREY fell through. Mr. FRINK called Policemad DIMMOCK, and Mr. C. was taken up and carried to his room at the American House. Dr. FRED NEWTON was called and dressed the wounds, which consist of two broken ribs, a broken wrist, and some painful bruises.

The Holy Communion will be celebrated at all the churches to-morrow.

The Women's Missionary Society of the Presbyterian Church meets this afternoon at F. J. KROM's on Main street.

A. J. FISHER has just placed in his Gallery one of L. W. Seavey's finest scenery backgrounds. Also, new accessories.

Dr. S. M. WOODBURN has removed his office and residence to first house north of the Methodist church, Main st.

Mrs. ALEXANDER ENNIS, of Standing Stone, who was visiting her daughter, Mrs. JOHN M. RAHM, in this place, died about 10 o'clock last night.

Reception of members and communion at the Universalist Church to-morrow morning. Doctor TAYLOR's subject in the evening is, "The relation of the life here, to the life hereafter."

We were unable to attend the Institute exercises in Mercur Hall last evening and have no report of the entertainment, but learn it was a very pleasant affair. W. V. DUGGAN was awarded first prize for declamation, and HERMAN F. LEE the second. Honorable mention was made of Mr. GEORGE BEERS' effort.

The literary exercises of Oscaluwa Grange last evening would have done credit to any college society and afforded another evidence of the beneficial influence of the order of Patrons in intelligent communities. The Oscaluwa Independent, a very lively paper, edited by Mrs. W. SMITH, assisted by other members, was read to the entertainment and edification of all present. The "feast of reason" was supplemented by a spread of warm sugar. It would be a glorious thing if every rural district were blessed with an organization similar to Oscaluwa.

The horse trade business has been very brisk hereabouts the present week. Major C. H. SEELEY has sold his matched grays to the Rathbun House, Elmira; SAMUEL TOWN-SEND of Wilkesbarre bought a bay team of Mr. WELLER of West Burlington, a pair of chestnut mares of Mr. DECKER of Litchfield, chestnut horse of ROBT. ARNOLD and a brown horse of C. D. HUMPHREY; JOHN MURRAY of Waverly bought a brown coach horse of C. D. HUMPHREY; S. B. TIDD of Tioga, Pa., a dealer in coach horses for New York market, bought of E. B. MINIER of Milan a fine bay horse, and of LEWIS KILMER of Shores Hill a mate for him, making an elegant pair of sixteen hands coach horses.

AMUSEMENTS.—MERCUR HALL, WEDNESDAY, APRIL 6th.—On Wednesday evening next the amusement loving public of Towanda will have an opportunity of witnessing the performance given by what is said to be the best, (without any exception) variety combination in existence. The agent, Mr. P. D. Lanman, stated that owing to their having an open week between Buffalo and Philadelphia they were enabled to put in a night at Towanda, though not in the habit of plying small towns. The company as they will appear here will comprise every person billed with the addition of the greatest living Contortionist. Young Ajax. The management assures the entire absence of anything broadness or vulgarity, in short guarantee an evening of refined amusement. Popular prices will be observed. Admission 50 and 35 cts. Diagram at Kirby's.

PRACTICAL SYMPATHY.—When Mr. CHAS. JOHNSON of the foundry returned from dinner yesterday he informed his partner and employes that Mrs. KING, a worthy but poor widow lady living near him was in trouble; her sister Miss CALIFF was lying dead in the house, having died on Thursday, after a long illness, her son very sick and requiring constant attention, and to add to her affliction an unsympathizing landlady a few days since levied on her household goods for the rent she had been unable to pay during the protracted sickness in the family. A purse of $23 50 was promptly and cheerfully contributed by the men in the establishment, and presented to the lady.

In this connection we cannot forbear mentioning an incident. When the goods were attached for rent, Mr. IRA MORLEY hearing of the proceeding went to the officer and volunteered to become responsible for the sum and thus saved Mrs. KING much annoyance, and relieved her from a grievous burden.—Holy Writ is authority for the assertion that these investments will pay large dividends. They are the record of "deeds that will smell sweet and blossom in the grave."

WRATHER INDICATIONS FOR TO-DAY.—Generally fair.

The News Condensed.

Lord Beaconsfield's condition is again alarming.

The decrease of the public debt for March is $6,192,819.
