FRANK ROSENFELD writes us from Houston, Texas, that he has been very ill since his arrival in that city, and that he proposes to shake the dust of the "lone star" State from his feet as soon as his health permits, and return to Towanda. He has lots of friends who will welcome him back.

There was an immersion at the Baptist Church at the close of the sermon last evening.

The annual meeting for the election of officers of the Baptist church, occurs this evening.

CORNELIUS VANDERPOOL, of Towanda township, was robbed of some $400 in cash and securities valued at $1600 one night last week. He suspected several of his nephews of the robbery and put the matter in the hands of officer BURNS, who caused the arrest of the suspected parties. While he was working up the case GEORGE VANDERPOOL, one of the arrested, confessed the robbery and disclosed where the plunder was concealed. He had divided the money with two of his friends, telling them that he had found it. At a hearing before Justice CODDING on Friday afternoon all the prisoners except GEORGE were discharged. He was held to await the action of the Grand Jury.

Nothing like the Comedy and American Four consolidated variety show which has been crowding the Buckingham to the utmost during the past week has been seen here this season. The combination gives as good, if not better, show than Tony Pastor brings with him. The bill played throughout is one continuation of good things. The combination opened Monday night to the largest house ever seen in the theatre; many being unable to gain admission. The bill opened with a roaring sketch with Joe Pettingill as the negro. The olio was opened by the Parker Sisters, the most refined lady song-and-dance artistes living. Georgie Parker is simply too beautiful and petite for anything. Andy Collons' banjo act brought him four or five encores nightly. He has no equal. Murphy and Mack's Irish sketch is a screamer. The American Four simply break up the house every night. Miss Carrie Howard is one of the best serio-comics on the American stage. In short, the entire bill is a repetition of good things and must be seen to be appreciated.—Louisville Argus, Jan. 16th, 1881.

Will appear in Mercur Hall on Wednesday evening. Admission 50 and 35 cents. Reserve seats at KIRBY'S Drug store.

WEATHER INDICATIONS FOR TO-DAY.—Local rains in southern portion; slight rise in temperature.

There was a good deal in a name for Secretary Lincoln when he was invited to a seat in Mr. Garfield's Cabinet; at least so far as prophecy of his official future went. The lamented sire was noted for being a most humane man, and his son has just given evidence of a like trait. Officers who have been exiled as it were, on frontier and other duty, from all luxuries and social pleasures are now to be afforded an equal opportunity with their more fortunate brothers, who will take their places for a time.
