The well-known banking firm of PARDEE, MARKLE & GRIER, Hazleton, has been dissolved by the retirement of Mr. GRIER. The business will be continued by the other members of the firm.

The funeral services commemorative of the late Mrs. ENNIS will be held in the Universalist church, Standing Stone, at noon today. Friends will meet at the residence of JOHN M. RAHM at 10 o'clock to escort the remains to that place.

We hope everybody will not only remember the benefit to be given in the M. E. Church parlors Wednesday evening, but be present and contribute according as the Lord, "who loveth a cheerful giver," hath prospered them.

In our notice of the sale of horses on Saturday, by an inexcusable and stupid blunder of the type setter, the name of S. B. TIDD appeared where it was plainly written PECK.—S. B. PECK, the well-known horse dealer of Tioga, is the gentleman intended to be mentioned.

The annual meeting of the Towanda branch of the "Mutual Relief Society" of Rochester N. Y., will be held in the COMMISSIONERS' ROOM, in the Court House, TUESDAY EVENING, APRIL 6, 1881, for the election of officers for the ensuing year.

L. F. GARDNER, Sec'y.

A new firm has been formed which will open for business in the store lately occupied by ED. E. LOOMIS, Troy. The firm is composed of WALTER B. GERNERT, HENRY C. GERNERT, and FRED MCCOLLUM, under the firm name of GERNERT BROTHERS & MCCOLLUM. The store is being remodelled to accommodate the new firm who expect to open for business about the first of May.

While the Herdic Coach Company does not altogether fill the requirements of cheap and rapid transit, its enterprise is in the right direction and promises to eventually develop into a useful public service. The community which has thus far liberally supported it will be glad to learn, therefore, that the rumors recently current of its impending bankruptcy are altogether unfounded, and that it is prospering and expects to soon enlarge its operations.—Press.

Mr. HAYT, proprietor of the Rathbun House, sported a fine new steel gray team yesterday, which he purchased in Towanda. They are for the omnibus, day work, a fine sorrel team doing the night service. The steel grays will together weigh 2,400 pounds, and are so well put together and symmetrical, that they are greatly deceptive as to their avardupois. Mr. HAYT believes in having things first-class, and is bound to be progressive and keep a good hotel.—Elmira Adv.

While excavating at the poor house on Monday last, between the insand department and the house, workmen came on the skeletons of two Indians lying with their heads to the east and some distance apart. The bones were considerably decayed, with them was a fresh water clam shell, probably used as a spoon. It was the custom of the Indians to bury with the dead a small quantity of food to last them to the spirit-land, and a spoon with which the defunct could eat it.—Troy Gazette.
