ADDITIONAL LOCAL.

Personal.

Judge McCOLLUM is holding court here this week.

CHESTER COOLBAUGH and GALEN OWEN spent Sunday in Troy.

Mrs. GEORGE RIDGWAY and son are visiting in Brooklyn, N. Y.

Mrs. PERRIGO the music teacher has returned from her visit to Vineland.

Mrs. LOLIE BAILEY has been appointed postmistress of Wetonah, this county.

T. E. QUICK, an enterprising and prominent citizen of Sugar Run is reported quite ill.

Constables FISH and ADAMS and D. MITCHELL, of Troy, were attending court yesterday.

The Supreme Court having taken a recess until May, Judge and Mrs. MERCUR have returned to their home in this place.

Mrs. LOU MAXWELL is quite sick. See is confined to her house and has hardly been able to leave her room for several weeks.

JOE FIEL, who was employed in Dr. H. C. PORTER'S drug store a year or two ago, is back there again. He is a skillful and expert druggist.

Dr. H. W. CHAMPLAIN, of Orwell, who has been attending lectures at the celebrated University of Michigan at Ann Arbor, was in town yesterday.

JOHN GAYLORD, of Wyalusing lately started on an extensive trip to the far west. He was some years in California in the mining business in the early days of gold digging in that region.

E. C. IRWIN, general agent of the Phenix Fire Insurance Co., is in town. He goes to Burlington this morning to adjust a loss. The Phenix is one of the companies which always settle promptly.

Mr. O. FISH, an enterprising and skillful blacksmith who removed from Lime Hill to Spencer about a year since, has just taken up his residence in Terrytown, where he will carry on his trade.

M. E. HEISE, representing one of the largest stationery houses in the United States, is in town. He is on his way home after a successful trip west. If there are any of our contemporaries or stationery dealers who have not had the good fortune to meet Mr. HEISE, we advise them to be on the lookout for him if they want to secure bargains in stock, and at the same time have the pleasure of dealing with one of the most urbane, candid gentlemen to be met with anywhere.

MEL CARMAN'S horse died yesterday afternoon.

The several undertakers of this place attended five funerals yesterday.

A good girl who understands all kinds of house work, will be paid the highest wages.
Mrs. B. M. Peck.

Madam FOSTER has taken rooms in the Bently block where she will be pleased to see all persons desirous to consult her on business.

The benefit to be given at the M. E. Church to-morrow evening is worthy the patronage of all who can sympathize with the afflictions of the deserving poor.

The Waverly Review will be printed daily during the session of the Wyoming Conference. The first number appeared yesterday and was a very creditable effort.

Irish National Land League No. 1 of Towanda will meet Wednesday evening, April 6th at 7:30 at the parlor of St Celia Mannerchor, Patton's Block.

By order of the Executive Com.

The new borough legislature organized last evening. W. G. ALGER was elected Burgess, JOSEPH KINGSBURY, Clerk, J. N. CALIFF,

Counsel and BENJ. NORTHRUP, Street Commissioner.

HOWARD COLE, of Waverly, N. Y., was apprehended by Watchman SENECA ARNOLD yesterday, for smoking on the bridge. He had to pay the fine. The Commissioners are bound to enforce the regulation.

They continue to exhume Indian relics on the poor house farm. Quite a number of skeletons have been dug up and Saturday the workmen found a kettle holding four quarts. The vessel was made of clay burned hard.

Chief of Police BURNS discovered on Saturday evening what he supposed to be a wild duck in a cove near the eastern abutment of the bridge. Procuring his rifle he took good aim and killed the fowl at first shot, which proved to be a rara avis. While somewhat resembling a duck, it is probably a species of snipe. The feathers are very thick and as fine as eider down. Unlike the duck it has no tail feathers.

The thirtieth annual session of the Wyoming Conference convenes at Waverly to-morrow morning. As we have no doubt many of our readers will be interested in the proceedings we print the programme:
