The Boston Herald speaks right to the point in a recent article on "Clean Newspapers," as follows: There is a growing feeling in every healthy community against the journals who make it their special object to minister to perverted taste by seeking out and serving up in a seductive form disgusting scandals and licentious revelations. There is good reason to believe that the clean newspaper is more highly prized to day than it was four or five years ago. It is also safe to predict that, as people in all ranks of life, who wish to protect their own at least from contamination, become more conscious of the pernicious influence of a certain class of journals, called "enterprising" because they are ambitious to serve up dirty scandals, they will be careful to see that the journals they permit to be read in the family circle are of the class that never forget the proprieties of life. To the praise of the decent newspapers it may be said, that where it has a place in the family, and has been read for years by young and old, it has developed such a healthy tone and such a discriminating taste that the literature of the slums has no admirers. Fortunately, the number of such families is increasing in the land, and as they increase the journal that devotes itself to sickening revelations of immorality will be compelled to find its supporters solely among those classes that practice vice or crime, or are ambitious to learn to follow such ways.

The following is said to be a fair estimate of the worth of New York millionaires, and if they shake off the mortal coil to-morrow, not one of them can take a penny to that bourne whence no traveler returns;—William H. Vanderbilt, $125,000,000; Jay Gould, $89,000,000; Russell Sage, $35,000,000; D. O. Mills, $25,000,000; C. K. Garrison, $20,000,000; Cornelius Vanderbilt, $18,000,000; S. J. Tilden, $12,000,000; C. F. Woerishoffer, $10,000,000; ——— Milbank, $10,000,000; E. H. Green, $10,000,000; E. D. Morgan, $9,000,000; W. K. Vanderbilt, $8,000,000; David Dows, $7,500,000; Samuel Sloan, $6,000,000; W. L. Scott, $5,000,000; H. V. Newcomb, $5,000,000; Addison Cammack, $4,000,000; Solon Humphreys, $3,500,000; George Osgood, $3,000,000; C. J. Osborn, $3,000,000; H. J. Marquand, $2,500,000; James R. Keene, $2,200,000; H. N. Smith, $2,000,000; D. P. Morgan, $1,500,000.

It is reported that the Czar the other night on retiring discovered under his pillow a communication bearing the official stamp of Nihilists, warning him that if a representative government and a liberal constitution is not granted to Russia within six weeks from his accession, he would by a resolution of the Executive Committee, suffer the same end as the deceased monarch.

In the Sewanhak investigation, Charles A. Dana, editor of the Sun, and Mayor Grace, who were passengers on the burned vessel, testified that the life-preservers were in good condition. Grace stated that he put them on his wife and two daughters and swam ashore with them.

The Cincinnati carpenters struck for an increase of wages to two dollars and a half a day. The rope makers also struck for an increase to one twenty-five per day. Their employers agreed to give an increase after the orders now on hand are filled.

A dispatch from Ottawa states that a gentleman has applied to the Dominion government for one hundred thousand acres in the northwest territories, in behalf of the stockraisers, whose cattle are starving in Wyoming Territory.

The Produce Exchange of New York, Monday adopted a resolution in favor of enlarging canals and abolishing tolls.
