VOLUME II, NO. 204.

TOWANDA, PA., FRIDAY, APRIL 8, 1881.

PRICE ONE CENT.

ADDITIONAL LOCAL.

Personal.

Mrs. D.A. OVERTON is visiting friends in New York city.

Mrs. MADDEN went to New York last evening to select new goods.

THODE HILL of Williamsport is attending court here this week.

GUY HOLLON, of the "Novelty Straw Works," is nursing a badly swollen arm, the result either of poison or erysipelas.

A. REESER, proprietor of the Reeser House, has sold his fine bay horse to ORNAL KELLOGG of the Elwell House, Towanda.—Du-shore Review.

Yesterday's Binghamton Republican says ARTHUR TILESTON has recovered from his recent severe illness and was out on the street yesterday.

FRANK BUCK, one of the oldest and most expert of the Easton and Elmira mail agents, was calling on friends in Towanda yesterday afternoon.

JOHN MEREDITH, our former jolly townsman, has been here for a day or two greeting old friends. He lives in Canton now and is engaged in selling musical instruments.

CHAS. MILLER, who was quite seriously injured by being struck with a piece of board thrown from a circular saw a few weeks since, suffered the amputation of the end of one of his thumbs in the same establishment one day this week.

A pleasant company assembled at the residence of ABEL BARNER, Washington street, Wednesday to witness the nuptials of Miss JESSIE MAY, eldest daughter of the host, to HORACE CHILSON. The groom is an intelligent, thrifty and industrious young farmer of Towanda township, and the bride is one of our most estimable young ladies. She was the recipient of many handsome and valuable presents from admiring friends. The bridal party departed southward on train 7 yesterday morning, and after a brief bridal tour will return to this place.

The REVIEW extends congratulations, and returns thanks for remembrance in the shape of a generous supply of cake.

Don't forget to call at Rundell's this morning and get a nice shad—just received.

Mrs. McDONALD, whose death was noticed yesterday, will be buried in Dushore to-morrow.

The St. Cecilia Mannerechor are making every needed preparation for their approaching hop.

MICHAEL KIRWIN has lost several fine ewes from a disease that his flock has never before experienced.

M. C. Wells, the White Sewing Machine agent has removed his office from the Music store to Wood & Co.'s Gallery, third story Patton's block.

CLARK B. PORTER has been exhibiting several young alligators at his drug store for the past few days. Some friend sent them to him from Jacksonville, Fla.

The funeral of Master GEORGE SNELL will take place from the residence of his parents, corner Main and Lombard streets, at 2 o'clock this afternoon. Rev. JOHN S. BEERS, rector of Christ Church, will conduct the services.

We have learned of the following additional changes in residences:

Mr. R. R. Rockwell has moved into one of Mr. Fox's houses on Main street, third ward. LeRoy Corbin has taken C. T. Kirby's house corner Main and Chestnut streets.

E. C. Shoemaker has moved into the O. D. Bartlett house, Fourth street.

Mrs. H. M. Hall has rented a house of A. B. Dodge, on William street.

John Holdren and family, late of Corning, N. Y., have taken a house of W. B. Dodge on William street.

WEATHER INDICATIONS FOR TO-DAY.—

Slightly warmer, threatening and rain.

Lost, yesterday morning, a gold locket watch charm. Dark colored stone setting in one side and a light one in the other. Finder will be suitably rewarded on leaving it at this office.

We know the item in the local columns of one of our cotemporaries is real sharp, although our ignorance of the language of which the astute young gentleman who is the alleged editor, is master, prevents our "seeing it." But the paragraph is both witty and profound, of course, else it could not have emanated from so learned and experienced a journalist.

Dr. HARRIS K. SMITH died in Middletown, N. Y., yesterday afternoon. The deceased was for several years a resident of this place. He was a young man of marked ability and ranked high as a teacher. Two years ago he graduated at Jefferson Medical College, but had been in declining health ever since, so that he was never able to practice the profession he had labored so assiduously to acquire, and in which he would doubtless have attained eminence. He will be sincerely mourned by a large circle of friends here who knew him as an upright, honorable and exemplary gentleman.

The News Condensed.

Beaconsfield is worse.
