At a meeting of the faculty of Lehigh University held March 21st, 1881, the following record was directed to be spread upon the minutes:

The faculty have received with heartfelt sorrow the sad intelligence of the death of Charles Waller Abbott of the senior class, and hasten to tender their heartfelt sympathy and condolence to his parents and family. An excellent student of more than ordinary gifts, he was exemplary in deportment and worked faithfully to acquire the knowledge which should fit him for future professional life upon which, to all human foresight, he was so soon to enter.

Intelligent, truthful, frank and manly, he was highly esteemed by his classmates and fellow-students, who will sadly miss him from among them. There remains to cheer those from whom he has been thus early taken, the reasonable religious and holy hope that a merciful God has removed him to a happy and eternal home.

R. A. LAMBERTON, Pres.

MANSFIELD MERRIMAN, Sec'y.

The "Benefit" at the parlors of the Methodist church on Wednesday evening was a complete success. The tables were spread at 6 o'clock. Coffee, sandwiches and cake were served by charming waiters to the attendants till half-past seven. At that time the sumptuous tables were left for a richer musical and oratorical feast. Declamations were spoken by Mr. W. S. MACE, Mr. W. V. DUGGAN, Mr. A. F. BRONSON and Miss HILA HUNTLEY favored the audience by reciting the "Painter of Seville." Mr. MACE has a clear voice, fine articulation and an easy, graceful manner. He always pleases his audience. Mr. DUGGAN, who carried off the first prize at the contest in Mercur Hall last Friday evening, has a strong, melodious voice, a fine presence, an almost perfect enunciation and just Welsh enough in his speech to make him a very interesting and forcible speaker. Mr. Bronson, though suffering from a severe cold, spoke his declamation, "The Flag," with great earnestness and animation. He has to contend with one or two natural defects and when these are overcome he will make a fine speaker. Miss HUNTLEY has a clear though not a strong voice. Her inflections are excellent. Her manner is pleasing and her rendering of the "Painter of Seville" was interesting.

The musical part of the entertainment was most excellent. The song "The Violets" was sung beautifully by Mrs. BALDWIN and Miss SEELEY, with Mrs. SHAUT accompanist. The duet "When I Know that thou art Near Me," by Miss LOTTIE KEELER and Mr. MACE was highly entertaining. The duet "How dear to Me the Hour," by Mrs. H. MERCUR and Miss KEELER could not have been more appreciated. The song and chorus "I've gwine back to Dixie," by Mrs. BALDWIN, Miss SEELEY and Mrs. TURNER was sweetly pathetic and thrilled all present with delight.

At the conclusion of these exercises ice cream and cake were served to a large number who were anxious to help the good work. One feature of the entertainment was especially pleasing and commendable, and that was to see the people of the different congregations taking hold as a unit, and working with a will for a worthy cause.
