Hon. JOSEPH POWELL and wife, and Mrs. P. POWELL attended the funeral of Mrs. BAKER in Bath, N. Y., yesterday.

Judge MCCOLLUM who is presiding at court here this week, gives universal satisfaction to both bar and laity who are in attendance.

Prof. BAXTER OWEN sailed for Europe yesterday. He expects to be gone several months. The trip is undertaken for the benefit of his health.

J. H. CLARK, one of the first subscribers to the REVIEW, and who has given other substantial tokens of his friendship called yesterday and paid for another year. Such friends are worth something.

Our esteemed friend J. F. OVENSHER, put in an appearance at this office yesterday. We are always glad to see him. When Sayre becomes a city we shall expect to see FRANK the first Mayor or alderman.

Prof. SIDNEY BOVINGDON has just closed a successful term of school at Wyalusing, and will attend a term at the Institute. Mr. B. is one of the progressive teachers who improves every opportunity to add to his store of useful knowledge.

Dr. S. C. ROSS, who has been visiting his mother in this place for a few days, returned to Ann Arbor, Mich., where he is attending medical lectures, last evening. He carries with him the best wishes of a host of friends, not only in this place, but in the western part of the county, where he formerly resided.

We clip the following item from yesterday's Tunkhannock Standard. We beg to remind our partizan cotemporary that JOSH knows how to be kind to editors who are not of the democratic faith, and that his friends are not confined to any political party:

Mr. M. J. Lull, the gentlemanly conductor on the State Line & Sullivan Railroad, made our town a flying visit yesterday. Josh is an ardent democrat and a warm friend to democratic papers, and what is still better, he don't forget to pay the printer. Come again old friend, you will always find our latch string out.

The roads are getting very dusty.

To-day is the 16th anniversary of LEE's surrender to GRANT.

The dry leaves on the mountain just opposite town caught fire again yesterday.

Dr. H. K. SMITH, whose death was noticed in yesterday's REVIEW, was a member of Bradford Lodge I. O. O. F., of this place.

All committees connected with the W. F. M. S. to meet next week at the Presbyterian Church are requested to report at Mrs. D. W. SCOTT'S, this afternoon at 3 o'clock.

The Towanda Musical Society will not meet on the day appointed, but on Wednesday, April 14, at the residence of Mr. WILLIAM KEELER, Scale, B. major.

This is Mrs. MINGOS' opening day in Easter goods. They are really charming and we hope the ladies will appreciate Mrs. MINGOS' efforts, as this is the first of the kind our town has ever been favored with.

C. H. SEELY is excavating and has a large quantity of material on hand, preparatory to erecting an addition to his hotel—an indication that the Major's enterprise is equal to the demands of his increasing business.

This office is in need of $300. If one hundred of our subscribers would walk up to the "captain's office" and pay a year in advance, our necessities would be relieved. Will they do it?

There will be a meeting of the Women's Foreign Missionary Society of the Presbyterian church, in this place next week. Quite a number of delegates from abroad will be in attendance.

"Castelar's" lecture at the Institute on Tuesday evening next, we confidently predict will be one of the most interesting of the course. We hope our people may evidence their appreciation of Mr. INGHAM'S ability, scholarly attainments and interest in the cause of education, by giving him a full house.
