TOWANDA, PA., TUESDAY, APRIL 12, 1881.

PRICE ONE CENT.

ADDITIONAL LOCAL.

Personal.

O. W. CORBIN has opened a meat market at Wyalusing.

ARTHUR TILSTON of Binghamton was in town yesterday.

W. S. VINCENT and family left for their new home in Erie this morning.

Mrs. DANIEL KINGSLEY is visiting her brother and sister in Binghamton.

C. H. ALLEN, though not very rugged yet, is able to be out again after a month's illness.

C. S. LAFFERTY of Camptown has lately received another car load of lumber wagons from the west.

Hon. J. G. PATTON has rented his fine residence and is now boarding with his brother-in-law, JOHN J. GRIFFITHS on Main street.

Under the head of "What People are Doing," yesterday's Philadelphia Press says:—"L. MUNDY of Towanda always puts up at the St. Elmo, where he now is."

Mr. ROSS, the wide-awake grocery merchant, made a capital hit when he secured Mr. LEROY CORBIN as manager of his first ward store. Mr. C. has had long experience in the mercantile business, is a pleasant, courteous gentleman who will win customers. He has an excellent assortment of goods, and LEROY'S nice taste is exhibited in the arrangement of things. Down town people especially will appreciate having such an establishment at which to buy their groceries.

The Third Ward Grocery store was sold at sheriff's sale yesterday.

Snow is falling rapidly this morning with every indication that the storm will continue all day.

WEATHER INDICATIONS FOR TO-DAY.—Cloudy weather and rain, with slight changes in temperature.

J. W. INGRAM will discuss the "Power and Influence of Knowledge," at the Institute this evening. The lecture will be free and the public are cordially invited. Begins at 7:30.

The address of Rev. C. T. HALLOWELL before the G. A. R. on Saturday evening, the anniversary of LEE'S surrender, is highly complimented by the boys in blue who listened to it.

Mrs. LYMAN WARNER has purchased the steam laundry from Mr. HAIGHT and will hereafter carry on the business in the room one door south of the dye works. Mrs. WARNER is an excellent laundress and we hope she may receive a generous patronage.

A NEW ENTERPRISE.—R. S. Thurber has provided himself with a suitable "rig" and is now prepared to deliver all kinds of packages, goods, trunks, &c., on the shortest notice and at reasonable rates. Orders left at Stevens & Long's and Dye & Co.'s will receive prompt attention.

Baggage and parcels hauled to and from depots. 4-12

Judge MORROW presided in court yesterday. An Examiner was appointed in the Smithfield school director case. The motion for a rule to set aside the final account of H. W. PATRICK, guardian of the MURRAY children, filed and confirmed more than sixteen years ago, was denied in a written opinion of some length. The case of HUNT vs Monroe-ton borough was called in the afternoon and is still on trial.

The annual meeting of the Towanda District of the Women's Foreign Missionary Society of the Presbytery of Lackawanna will be held in the Presbyterian Church of Towanda on Thursday, the 14th instant. "GONE HOME."—Rev. CHESTER PARK, one of the oldest and most highly esteemed citizens of Athens, died on Saturday night at the ripe age of about 80 years. For many years Mr. P. was a leading merchant in that place, and as an upright conscientious business man and Christian gentleman none stood higher. He was a local preacher of the M. E. denomination, and for years labored for the spiritual welfare of the sparsely settled communities in the northern part of the county, always enforcing his teachings by a godly walk and conversation. He was an active member and liberal supporter of the Methodist church in Athens, and he will be sincerely mourned by the membership as well as the entire community.

Although a cripple for the last years of his life, as the result of an accident, he was always cheerful and happy. His hearty greetings, always extended to those whom he met, made him a welcome guest to all who were honored with his acquaintance. "Full of years and honors, like a shock of corn fully ripe," he has been taken to his reward.

The deceased leaves an aged widow, two son (one of them D. F. PARK, the well-known merchant of Athens), and three daughters to mourn his loss. One of his daughters is in Tunkhannock with her husband, Rev. J. D. TRACY. The funeral took place yesterday afternoon.

For rent, a small house newly papered and painted, convenient to the Institute. Inquire at this office.

The News Condensed.

It is thought that nearly all the Irish members will support the land bill.

Chio had another earthquake yesterday causing the destruction of many more houses.

A heavy earthquake was experienced in California on Sunday. No particular damage was done.
