As Hon. T. C. PLATT, the new U. S. Senator from New York is so near to us, we feel an interest in his personal and political welfare, because we know him to be worthy, and we copy the following notice from the Binghamton Republican with real pride: The friends of the Hon. Thomas C. Platt have reason to feel proud of the prompt recognition his ability and worth received in the reorganization of the Senate Committees. It seldom falls to the lot of a new Senator to be so highly honored, especially when coming directly from business pursuits. He is sixth on the Finance Committee, third on Postoffices, fourth on Transportation Routes to the Seaboard and first on the joint Committee on Enrolled Bills. In view of recent and prospective legislation the Finance Committee is one of most important Committees of the Senate; and it is assuring as well as gratifying to know that it is composed in the main of men whose views are not tinctured with the financial heresies of the day. The Committee on Postoffices and Post-roads is also one of importance, and it is eminently fitting that upon it the new Postmaster General should have a representative from his own State. These and the other positions accorded to Mr. Platt are not only a high tribute to his ability and integrity, but they betoken a purpose on the part of the Republicans of the Senate to secure the services of the best men in the most responsible position. This is shown all through the reorganization of the Senate Committee.

The Chicago Times of Saturday morning says: "The Times to-morrow will say: The excitement and jump in pork to-day was the result of a development of a strong corner in that product, controlled by Peter McGeogh, of Milwaukee, backed by the Millions of Alexander Mitchell. There are less than 200,000 barrels of pork in Chicago, and the amount outside of the city is small. It is reported McGeogh controls this 200,000 and has bought 800,000 barrels options running up to and including June. A diversity of opinion exists as to Armour's relations to the present corner, but there has been a fight between him and McGeogh. It is predicted that the price of pork will run up as high as $20. Parties familiar with the pork business say the supply this season is likely to fall short of last by reason of the hard winter which killed off a large number of hogs, while it has left the survivors in poorer condition than they were last spring. Information from different sources says the immediate cause of the advance was a private dispatch, said to be from a high official source in Paris, that the French Government had decided to rescind the prohibitory decree, but it is said the real and lasting cause of the extraordinary rise, amounting to from ninety cents to a dollar in pork, and from fifteen cents to twenty cents in lard, is the strong hand of the Armour's, who have secured May options, and are reaching out after the June and July futures. Their purpose is said to be to squeeze the shorts as heavily as the conditions of trade and the rules of the Board permits."

IMPORTANT TO TEACHERS.—The Pittsburg Telegraph says: "Dr. Higbee, the new State Superintendent of Public Instruction, is calling in the teachers certificates, and will compel them to undergo a re-examination before they can take out new ones. Over one half the teachers employed in Pittsburg hold such certificates from the State, which license the holder to teach in any part of Pennsylvania. Without one a Pittsburg teacher cannot teach outside of Alleghany county. The examination of applicants for a State certificate is very rigid, and teachers holding such certificates will likely be compelled to devote months to refreshing their memory in certain branches."
