The Kansas law goes into effect May 1st. A letter of Gov. St. John to the Chicago Woman's Temperance Union, sets several rumors to rights. The Governor writes:—"That many of the whisky dealers in this State are moving to Kansas City, Mo., is true, but for every saloon-keeper that goes out of Kansas account of our prohibitory law, a sufficient number of sober, industrious, energetic families come into the State to build a school-house, and Kansas can always afford to trade her saloons for school-houses, and drunkenness for sobriety. That part of the letter which alleges that the law interfere with the free and unrestricted sale of tinctures or compound that are used solely for medicine, is not true, nor does the law directly or indirectly with the right to administer or partake of wine at communion services. All such stories are instigated and circulated by the whisky ring in order to break the force of the prohibitory law in this State, for the advocates of free whisky well know that when it has been thoroughly tested and proved, which it will be, that prohibition in Kansas is a grand success, other States will follow our example, and eventually the policy of prohibition will be a fundamental law of the United States. Notwithstanding the law does not take effect until the 1st of May next, already the saloons have closed in most of the interior towns of the State, and after the 1st of May we will not have an open bar in Kansas—nor will Kansas ever again be guilty of giving the sanction of law to that which everybody knows to be wrong."

Very pathetically an English lady correspondent to an American journal describes the anxiety in the ladies gallery, during the Parliamentary debates on the Irish question. She writes "that the passions excited were scarcely less violent among those helpless, silent listeners, cramped and crowded in that narrow cage like wild birds just caught, with their fine plumage all crushed and torn, their bright colors all faded. Many a lovely Irish face, whose owner had entered all bright and sparkling, full of life and joy at the anticipation of triumph for the Irish cause, became overshadowed by degrees as the debates went on, until in more than one instance a deadly pallor and a shower of big tears had succeeded to the expression of hope and trust the countenance had worn. One lady, whose agitation had increased with each moment, burst into a terrific paroxysm of grief as the members disappeared at the Speaker's summons, and the image of that pale face and tightly clasped hands, as she bent over the gaily decorated muff upon her lap and rocked herself to and fro, has haunted me ever since."

At the closing of the meeting of Moody and Sankey, in San Francisco, on Thursday, $82,000 was raised to pay off the debt of the Y. M. C. A. building in that city. Mr. Moody pledged a large part of it. $60,000 was also raised for the evangelistic work of the Association. The evangelists have been laboring on the Pacific coast for six months, and the result has been a large accession to all the churches. They go to Chicago, stopping at Denver and Topeka.

The trial of Mrs. Josephine Trau, for passing a forged check of $1,800 on the Commercial Bank of Brooklyn, was concluded in the Kings county Court of Sessions, Friday evening. A verdict of forgery in the third degree was rendered.—The prisoner was remanded to the Raymond street jail to await sentence.
