The monthly meeting of the Bradford County Agricultural Society was held at the grand jury room on Saturday last. The subjects, when to sow plaster, manures in general, stock raising, and the adulteration of food, was discussed by J. E. PIOLLER, the President; Hon. GEO. LANDON, Hon. B. LAPORTE, WM. SMITH, Col. AYRES, and A. D. MUNN. J. HOLCOMB addressed the society on the subject of transportation of farm products, &c., alleging that the farmer of Illinois could transport his products to New York or Philadelphia as cheaply as the farmers of Bradford county. The meeting was well attended and considerable interest manifested. The next meeting of the society will be held at same place on Saturday, May 7th.

"GONE HOME."—REV. CHESTER PARK, one of the oldest and most highly esteemed citizens of Athens, died on Saturday night at the ripe age of about 80 years. For many years Mr. P. was a leading merchant in that place, and as an upright conscientious business man and Christian gentleman none stood higher. He was a local preacher of the M. E. denomination, and for years labored for the spiritual welfare of the sparsely settled communities in the northern part of the county, always enforcing his teachings by a godly walk and conversation. He was an active member and liberal supporter of the Methodist church in Athens, and he will be sincerely mourned by the membership as well as the entire community.

Although a cripple for the last years of his life, as the result of an accident, he was always cheerful and happy. His hearty greetings, always extended to those whom he met, made him a welcome guest to all who were honored with his acquaintance. "Full of years and honors, like a shock of corn fully ripe," he has been taken to his reward.

The deceased leaves an aged widow, two son (one of them D. F. PARK, the well-known merchant of Athens), and three daughters to mourn his loss. One of his daughters is in Turkey with her husband, Rev. J. D. TRACY. The funeral took place Monday afternoon.
