

DAILY TOWANDA REVIEW.

VOLUME II, NO. 213.

TOWANDA, PA., TUESDAY, APRIL 19, 1881.

PRICE ONE CENT.

ADDITIONAL LOCAL.

Personal.

JOS. KEEGAN of Sheshequin left for Pueblo, Colorado yesterday.

HENRY and CHARLES STEVENS of Standing Stone have gone to Missouri.

J. B. RIDGWAY has been appointed postmaster of Allis Hollow, this county.

MATT W. PARSONS, is in town on the sick list. He evidently needs rest.

WILL LAMOREUX, one of the Reporter typos, is laid up with sore eyes.

Mrs. SHOEMAKER, is visiting her son GEO. ESTELL, on Houston street.

Hon. W. W. KINGSBURY came home from Washington Saturday evening.

N. TIDD, Esq., and wife are visiting their daughter Mrs. R. P. ROSS, in Tunkhannock.

GEO. WILLSON of Herriek took the train in this place yesterday morning for Illinois.

Miss FLORENCE DELANO is enjoying a short vacation with her parents in this place.

We are pleased to see Mr. H. L. MAMOREUX on the street again after a severe illness of several weeks.

OLLIE BENNETT has returned from a pleasant visit to the home of his boyhood, in western Pennsylvania.

Mrs. WILLIAM ROCKWELL, of Franklin, is alarmingly ill. She is a sister of BENJ. NORTHROP, of this place.

EDW. IRVINE, of Liberty Corners, will take the place of Mr. BEST, in C. P. WELLES Crockery store.

WILLIAM COLLINS and DAN and WILLIAM CROWLEY of Wysox started for Denver, Col., yesterday morning.

GEORGE FOSTER, of Owego, spent Saturday and Sunday with his mother, Madam FOSTER, clarivoynt, in this place.

Rev. Mr. SEWAL and JOHN A. PARSONS of Troy were in town last evening on their way to Tunkhannock to attend Presbytery.

G. H. EATON a well known typo, who has been living in Pittston several years was in town on Sunday en route to the West.

The Presbytery of Lackawanna is in session in Tunkhannock. Rev. Doctor STEWART and N. TIDD, Esq., represent the church in this place.

J. H. BEST, of Quincy, Ill., who stands six feet and six inches in his stocking feet, has been in town a few days visiting his uncle GEO. BEST.

Court having adjourned for a few weeks, the faithful crier, Dr. HARRIS, has hied himself to Long Valley for a little recreation before May term.

Mr. GEO. BEST who has resided in this place for the past year, leaves for Colorado to-night, to become Superintendent of a mine in Webster in that state.

Constable WELLS had the misfortune to get his fingers badly hurt the other evening. He was assisting to load a heavy marble slab at the depot, when it fell, catching his hand.

Master FRED MALLORY celebrated his birthday last evening by a party to which a number of his young friends were invited. The evening was very pleasantly spent by the little folks.

RUEL HUNTLEY, an employe in HILL & Co's factory, was caught by the skirt of his coat on a shaft making seven hundred revolutions a minute, yesterday morning and whirled around until his coat, except the sleeves was torn into shreds. Strange to relate Mr. HUNTLEY was not seriously injured and kept on at his work.

New line of decorated chamber and Japanese sets at C. P. Welles' Crockery store.

Street Commissioner NORTHROP commended the work of cleaning Main street yesterday in good earnest. BEN has not yet learned the trick, as he was seen using the hoe as vigorously as any of his men. But then a new broom sweeps clean.

Col. REYNOLDS and Adj. MOORE of the 9th Regt., will inspect Co. "A" at the armory this evening. After the inspection Capt. WILT will hold an election for 1st Lieut. to fill the vacancy caused by the resignation of Lieut. JOHN TAYLOR.

The following gentlemen were chosen vestrymen of Christ Church at the election yesterday: JOHN F. MEANS, JAS. MCCABE, W. G. TRACY, H. T. JUNE, R. A. MERCUR, H. C. HILDRETH, Dr. T. B. JOHNSON and M. C. MERCUR.

We understand the election was unanimous.

Dr. KELLY the dentist has secured the services of Dr. W. A. RANDALL of Wsterley, R. I. Dr. R. is a graduate of the Philadelphia Dental College, and is said to be one of the best operators in the country. Dr. KELLY's business has increased to such an extent that he finds himself unable to attend to all the patrons who desire his services, and the public will be pleased to know that he has employed an assistant who will maintain the high reputation his dental rooms enjoy.

Mr. BECKWITH, of Orwell, came to town yesterday morning with a load of maple sugar and syrup, and driving a spirited pair of young horses, which were left standing at the corner of Bridge street. They were frightened by a passing team, and started up Main street at full speed. At Dr. PORTER'S corner they came in contact with a hydrant, which set the animals free but they had proceeded but a short distance when they were caught by Mr. MARTEW one of the proprietors of the Monroeton back. The only damage done was slight injury to the wagon, and the spilling of a gallon of syrup.

WEATHER INDICATIONS FOR TO-DAY.—Lower temperature; clearing.

Wanted, a good cook; also a second girl. Mrs. H. W. PATRICK.

PLATFORM WAGON FOR SALE, brand-new and of best material. Will be sold low for cash or good paper. Enquire of A. WICHAM or O. A. BLACK, Towanda, Pa.

The Union meeting. Political meeting will be held in the Court House in Towanda to organize a Union party and hear speeches, to organize on April the 30th 1881, commencing at 7:30 o'clock. RANSOME PAYNE.

Mattresses new at wholesale and retail, plain and fancy stripe feather pillows, ready made; plain pillows for shams, ready made; double front couches, full spring; smoking, sleepy hollow and students chairs, at Ottarson's, Bridge street.

Two fresh milk cows with calves by their sides for sale. H. H. Mace, Towanda Twp.

Go to Ottarson for a new couch.

Irish National Land League No. 1 of Towanda will meet Wednesday evening, April 29th at 7:30, at the parlor of St. Cecilia Manerchor, Patton's Block.

By order of the Executive Com.

The News Condensed.

A London dispatch announces the death of Lord Beaconsfield, this morning. He died peacefully, and was conscious to the end.

The riot at Deckertown, N. J., is over, and the strikers have gone to work again. No damage was done the property.

The State Department is anxious to have the struggle in the Senate end so that the Chinese Treaty may be taken up and discussed.

The mountain fires east of Wilkesbarre, last night threatened the destruction of the Oliver powder mills, three miles out of the city, and possibly part of the city.

A fire broke out on River street, Wilkesbarre, at eleven o'clock Sunday morning, destroying part of J. Welles Hollenback's dwelling, a boot and shoe manufactory and part of the Wyoming Valley Hotel.

It is reported in Buffalo that negotiations are in progress for the sale of the Buffalo, New York and Philadelphia Railroad to either Jay Gould or the Pennsylvania Railroad.

The National Bureau of Statistics is making an investigation in New York into butterine, to determine whether means can be devised to separate it from butter in the report of exports.

Governor Foster is alleged to have told an interviewer that "Senator Conkling is not at all hostile to President Garfield, but that he has been inexpressibly pained by Judge Robertson's nomination."

Terrible floods are raging in Wisconsin. Fon Du Lac and Watertown are reported partly submerged. In the former place some of the streets are being navigated in boats. The rivers all through the southern portion of the state are rising rapidly and in almost every town damage has been done. The damage will be immense as the flood has only just begun.

REGISTER'S NOTICE.—Notice is hereby given, that there has been filed in the office of the Register for the Probate of Wills and granting Letters of Administration in and for the County of Bradford, State of Pennsylvania, accounts of administration upon the following estates, viz:

Final account of R B Gleason, administrator of estate of Alexander Clark, late of the township of Springfield, deceased.

Final account of Johannah Chapman, executrix of the last will and testament of Louis C. Chapman late of the borough of Troy, deceased.

Final account of O J Chubbuck, administrator of the estate of James Bedford, late of the borough of Towanda, deceased.

Final account of D R Williams, administrator of the estate of Samuel Williams, late of the township of Barclay, deceased.

Final account of William McMorran, administrator of the estate of John P Biles, late of the township of North Towanda, deceased.

First and final account of Amos Cornell Stevens, executor of the last will and testament of John C Stevens, late of the township of Wyalusing, deceased.

Final account of P H Buck, guardian of Pay H Pierce child of Col. L B Pierce, late of the city of Baltimore, deceased.

First and final account of F E Jayne, administrator cum testamento annexo of the estate of Patrick Welsh, late of the borough of Towand, deceased.

First and final account of M E Lilley, administrator of John E Lilley, late of the township of LeRoy, deceased.

Final and partial account of F T Page, one of the administrators of the estate of Joseph B Reeve, late of the borough of Athens deceased.

Partial account of Seth Blakeslee, executor of the last will and testament of Caroline Waterman, late of the township of Pike, deceased.

Final account of John Bird, administrator of the estate of Joseph S Elsbree, late of the township of Smithfield, deceased.

Third and final account of M W DeWitt, administrator de bonis non of the estate of Jacob DeWitt, late of the borough of Towanda, deceased.

First and final account of Thomas J Roof and Henderson Roof, executors of the last will and testament of Charles Roof, late of the township of Standing Stone, deceased.

Final account of W H Decker and E T Fox, executors of the last will and testament of Daniel Decker, deceased.

First and final account of James W Correll, administrator of the estate of Myron H Annable, late of the township of LeRoy, deceased.

First and final account of G H VanDyke, administrator of the estate of D F Ross, late of the township of Ulster, deceased.

Final account of Nelson A Maynard, administrator of the estate of Levi Preston, late of the township of Troy, deceased.

Final account of James G Parks, guardian of Helen Daines (now Lureox,) minor child of David Daines.

Final account of Benjamin Davidson, guardian of Harriet A. Welch, minor child of William Welch, deceased.

Second partial account of H B Morgan, administrator of the estate of William H Morgan, late of borough of Towanda deceased.

Final account of Levi P Stafford, guardian of Henrietta Lutes (now Holcomb), child of James Lutes, late of the township of Wyalusing, deceased.

Final account of Hiram Rockwell, executor of the last will and testament of Elias Rockwell, late of Canton, deceased.

Final account of Jacob Smith, guardian of Rose Bell Smith, child of Douglas Smith, deceased.

Final account of Jacob Smith, guardian of Floyd Smith, minor child of Douglass Smith, deceased.

Final account of J Allen Gerould and EG Durfey administrators of the estate of James Gerould, late of the township of Smithfield, deceased.

Final account of Abigail Parmenter and James M Parmenter, administrators of the estate of Ashel Parmenter, late of the township of Springfield, deceased.

And the same will be presented to the Orphan's Court of Bradford county, on Thursday, the 5th day of May, A. D., 1881, at 2 o'clock p. m., for confirmation and allowance.

A. C. FRISBIE, Register.
Register's Office, Towanda, April 2, 1881.

BUSH'S COLUMN.

a call from everybody in search of READY MADE CLOTHING. It is an admitted fact that BUSH, The Bridge Street Clothier, keeps the largest, most fashionable, and best made Clothing, consisting of everything in the line to be found in the country. He defies competition either in quantity or quality of stock. His Spring Suits have just arrived, call and examine them. He can fit you out with every article of clothing needed by man or boy.

WANTED!

BUSH, at the Bridge Street Clothing House has just received a cargo of TRUNKS, VALISES, GRIP SACKS, ETC., ETC. which he is offering at manufacturers prices. His invoice filled one and a half cars, and comprises the best line of those goods ever offered in this market.

TRUNKS.

J. K. BUSH.