Personal.

E. J. ANGEL is confined to the house with a sore throat.

L. M. NYE of Sayre was visiting his Towanda friends yesterday.

DAN WALBORN'S new sprinkler resembles an abbreviated boiler. It does good work.

CHARLIE MCKINNEY has moved into Hon. Jos. POWELL'S house corner Chestnut and Fourth streets.

Mr. and Mrs. PHILIP GORI of New York have been visiting Mrs. G's mother in Wausauk this week.

President FOX of the Citizens National Bank, and wife returned from Philadelphia yesterday morning.

Lawyer FOYLE has returned from Montrose where he had been attending court as counsel in an important case.

G. MORTIMER LEWIS, a conspicuous young member of the Wilkes-Barre bar, was in Towanda yesterday on legal business.

Mrs. BURNS left for Washington on Thursday, having been invited to visit the capitol by the famous American sculptress, VINNIE REAM.

Mrs. ROSA McNULTY of this place and Mr. CONNOR, a Sayre machinist, were married on Wednesday evening and are away on a wedding trip.

G. S. ACKLEY'S only child, a bright little boy of four years, was reported very ill last evening, with only the faintest hope of his recovery.

There will be a special meeting of the Land League this evening. The public are invited.

Before purchasing your new hat call and examine the assortment just opened at the Globe store, Bridge street.

The inimitable HARRY RICHMOND will appear in Epitaphs in Mercur Hall Monday evening. Tickets 35 and 50 cents. For sale at Kirby's.

TO FIT ANY WATCH.—A glass or crystal, large or small, thick or thin, hunting or open-faced, at Johnson's, watchmaker and optician, 218, Water street, opposite Baldwin, Elmira.

FOR THE CHILDREN.—Solid and silver plated sets of knife, fork and spoon, cups and napkin rings. Gold finger and ear rings; neck-laces and silver thimbles at Johnson's, watchmaker and optician, 218 Water street, opposite Baldwin, Elmira.

GEO. B. NEAL'S business has grown so rapidly of late that he has been compelled to remove to more commodious quarters. He has secured the large wagon factory on Plank road street. People in want of curtain poles, extension dining tables, &c., should visit his establishment. He has the reputation of turning out the best work in this line to be found in Northern Pennsylvania.

If you do not already know just how fine a grade of organs we are now making and also how very low our prices are, it will surprise you to learn these facts: "The Manville" organs have not attained their reputation through advertising, but solely upon their own merits. For full information, terms, prices, &c., address J. A. Manville, Towanda, Pa.

We had the pleasure of listening to Mr. McCULLY'S reading in Mercur Hall last evening. The audience though not large was composed of our most intelligent and appreciative people, all of whom were delighted and listened with greatest interest from the beginning to the close of the entertainment.—We congratulate the people of Tunkhannock on the rich treat in store for them this evening. We hope Mr. McCULLY may find it convenient to visit Towanda again.

The public already proclaim that all we said in regard to the business capacity and enterprise of Mr. CORBIN, Superintendent of the First Ward Grocery store, has been verified. He now numbers among his customers people from all parts of town and he has a large country trade. LEROY is a wide-awake fellow, knows all about the mercantile business and is building up an immense trade.—He will make it an object for you to call and see him.
