Rev. Dr. Hinsdale, President of Hobart College at Geneva, is dangerously sick at Syracuse of pneumonia.

Somoa advices state that since the death of King Matietoa, the government forces have entirely conquered the large island of Savali, and are now attending to the rebels on the Upola.

The mining business has reached very extensive proportions at Lynn mountain, Clinton county. One thousand men are employed, and a stock company with $1,500,000 capital manages the business. The population is rapidly increasing.

Secretary Blaine attributes the reports of his failing health to the exercise of diplomacy on his part in evading the swarms of visitors at the State Department, who made it nearly impossible for him to control time enough to attend to public business.

Secretary Windom authorizes the statement that arrangements will be made immediately, whereby foreign holders of six per cents can have their bonds continued at 3½. An agency for this purpose will be established in London. This action is deemed expedient, to avoid the shipment of coin from this country, which would become necessary if any large amounts of bonds held abroad should be purchased in the United States for continuance.

The appointment of W. A. M. Grier of this State to the position of Third Assistant Postmaster General was not based on the sole qualification that he was the original Garfield man, but was made for the additional reason that he is eminently fitted for the office. And, by the way, it might as well be made known now that there was only one original Garfield man and he has been taken care of. Any person who attempts to play the General Washington nurse game on the President by representing himself as an O. G. M. will have his troubles for his pains. The account is closed.

Belva A. Lockwood, Esq., solicitor and attorney-at-law, has applied for the Brazilian Mission in a letter of considerable length to the President. Mrs. Lockwood says that she is fitted for the place, being a native of New York, and not identified with either of the factions in that State. She says she understands French, has a smattering of Spanish, and is familiar with the consular regulations. A strong card in her favor is the fact that the Emperor and Empress of Brazil are old-time friends. Mrs. Lockwood says that as no woman has ever been sent abroad to represent the interests of the country, although one-half the population consists of members of the gentler sex, she ought to have the place.

The Democrats continually deprecate the revival of sectional issues, and yet hardly a Democratic Senator has spoken since the present session began who has not boasted that the Republicans cannot break the Solid South. They have complained bitterly of the Republican "outrage mill," and yet not one of them who has spoken has failed to seize the crank and exert all his power to turn it in an opposite direction to that of which they complain. In doing this their misrepresentations have not only invited a discussion of old issues but have made it absolutely necessary that the truth should be put upon record. Perhaps since Mr. Frye's array of facts and figures the Bourbon Senators will be more chary how they invite refutation of their statements. In their case, silence would indeed be golden—for the Democratic party.
