There will be a select hop in Means' Hall, Friday, April 29th, 1881. Proceeds to be used in fitting out a gymnasium. Tickets 50 cents, for sale at FIRCH'S Confectionery Store.

G. H. DRAKE, whose death was announced in the REVIEW yesterday, came to Towanda about 1830 and commenced blacksmithing and wagon making. His shop was on the lot now occupied by the M. E. Church. After being burned out there in 1837 he located at the corner of Main and Elizabeth streets, where he continued to do business until he sold out to BRYANT & STULEN in 1867, after a successful and continuous business career of 37 years, and removed to Montrose where he engaged in the mercantile business with his son-in-law. Old age and infirmities compelled him to retire from the establishment on the first of January last. Mr. DRAKE was esteemed an honorable business man, a good citizen a consistent christian, having been a worthy and devoted member of the M. E. Church for many years.

The planets Saturn and Jupiter were in conjunction on Friday. When the two planets appear again in the east before sunrise, they will be transposed and Saturn will rise first. Still they will linger quite near each other for some time, finally to part company entirely. Jupiter will press on, leaving his companion whirling alone on his long track. The astrologers, of whom there are still a few, predict dire calamities from this conjunction. The calamities are not to come so much from the conjunction itself as it does from the fact that it occurs in the sign of Taurus. The last time a conjunction of these planets occurred in Taurus was in 1146 a year of horrors. It was the year of the crusade, in which 200,000 combatants were slain. The London dealers in astrology, who prepare what is called "Zadkiel's Almanac," have prepared a program of horrors for the old world to outdo those of 1146. The crash is just at hand, and marvelous is the sale of Zadkiel's almanacs among the ignorant credulous.
