Mr. J. R. CLAGHORN, President of the S. L. & S. R. R. Co., arrived in town this morning.

Old Mr. BRINK is very sick of erysipelas at the residence of his son-in-law, A. J. LAYTON.

Mrs. STERLING, of Meshoppen, is visiting her daughter, Mrs. C. F. Cross, at the Ward House.

Mrs. BURTON KINGSBURY informs us that Mr. DRAKE came to Towanda several years prior to 1830.

Grand Chancellor MERRITT visited Towanda Lodge K. of P. last evening. He goes to Barclay to-day.

Rev. J. S. BEERS, rector of Christ Church is attending a session of the North-Eastern convocation in Honesdale.

Miss ELLA WILCOX, of North Towanda, has been suffering from a painful attack of rheumatism but she is better now.

Mrs. TITUS has our compliments for a very bountiful supply of delicious, pure ice cream from the Wyoming county factory. Mrs. T. has the agency in this place for this superior cream and is prepared to fill orders on short notice.

Mr. IRVING, the florist, received a telegram from Memphis, Tenn., last evening that his brother was dying in that city, and leaves for the South this morning. During his absence his green house will be in charge of Mr. KAVANAUGH.

Pastor HALLOWELL, like the early followers of the Saviour, is a fisherman—not that he follows the piscatorial art for a livelihood, but simply as a matter of recreation. He was up the Schrader on Monday but did not succeed in persuading many of the "speckled beauties" to take a bite of his fly. The creeks are too high.

The lady members of the REVIEW family return thanks to Mr. KAVANAUGH the florist for a handsome bouquet of beautiful roses.—By the way, the ladies of Towanda will be interested in knowing that Mr. K. has a profusion of the handsomest house plants and flowers ever seen in this place. It will well repay a visit to his green house just to look at them.

We had the pleasure on Sunday evening last of listening to a very able, argumentative and convincing sermon on temperance, by Rev. C. T. HALLOWELL, at the Baptist Church. The Reverend gentleman is a temperance man from the heart, and always ready to give an intelligent reason for his faith in that direction.

The Soda fountains are in operation.

The celebrated Wyoming County Factory Ice Cream every day at Mrs. Titus' one door north of Powell & Co's.

WEATHER INDICATIONS FOR TO-DAY.—Clearing, preceded by occasional rain, stationary or lower temperature.

The item in regard to the young mother in yesterday's REVIEW should have been credited to the Elmira Sunday Telegram.

The members of the Ladies' Missionary Society of Christ Church have for several years selected some poor missionary for whom to work during the season of Lent. This year they chose the family of Rev. Mr. FESSENDEN of Cattawissa and yesterday forwarded them a large box of clothing. The donation is a valuable one and we doubt not will greatly aid and cheer a poorly paid but devoted worker in the Master's vineyard. None will doubt that the donors who wrought with their own hands the garments, will be richly blessed in their labor of love.

A NOTE FROM PROF. DANIELLE.—I gave a full course of lessons in dancing in Towanda. I did not "skip" as did my predecessor. My terms were "Payable at the close of the second lesson." Some did not pay then and some not yet. I've wasted as much paper and postage on them as I intend to, and if they do not remit me the amount to my address, in one week, I will publish the delinquent list. I paid my bills and want to be paid.
C. H. DANIELLE,
Deer Lodge, Montrose, Pa.

At the end of a week if the Senate does not act he is going to withdraw the whole lot leaving absolutely nothing before that body in the shape of business and to inform it that he will not send notice of the appointments for its action until December.
