Council Proceedings.

In pursuance of a call by the Burgess, a special session of the Council was held Wednesday evening, April 20th, 1881.

Members present, W. G. Alger, Burgess, Councilmen, Frost, Gordon, Holcomb, McCabe, Rahm, Spalding.

Burgess Alger, in stating the object of the meeting, said that Mr. Rundell had commenced the erection of a wooden structure south of his place of business on Pine street and his attention being called to it, he had issued a notice to Mr. Rundell to discontinue the work, and remove the materials from the premises, that he was not only violating the law in relation to the erection of wooden buildings, but that the Borough owned the land. Mr. Rundell desiring to lay the matter before the Council, this meeting was called to afford him the opportunity.

Mr. Rundell stated his case, and asked for permission to erect a small building for a cooler which he would remove next fall. Mrs. Ellen Madden and several other citizens objected, on the ground that it would be injurious to their business.

Mr. Holcomb said he was opposed to any further encroachments on the property of the Borough and should favor the enforcement of the ordinances, he thought it surprising that the Council should be asked to sanction the violation of the Borough ordinances in individual cases.

Mr. Gordon said that in order to bring the petition of Mr. Rundell properly before the Council he would move that a lease be drawn renting the ground to Mr. R., with permission to erect a brick cooler of the height of the coal box adjoining, the said brick cooler to be removed next fall.

Mr. McCabe said there had been a steady encroachment on some of the streets of the Borough until some of them had been reduced to a miserable alley; referring to Pine street, Mr. McCabe said the lawful width as appeared on the old survey was 49 1-2 feet, and it remained open that width where no encroachments had been made. Mr. McCabe continued his remarks at some length stating that while former Councils did not feel disposed to eject the trespassers, they had always intended that in case the buildings were destroyed by fire or otherwise, in rebuilding they would be held strictly to the original line of the street.

Mr. Holcomb moved to substitute for Mr. Gordon's motion, the following: "That the Council approve and sustain the action of the Burgess in forbidding the erection of the contemplated building by Mr. Rundell."

The yeas and nays were called on this substitute.

Resulting as follows: Yeas, Holcomb, McCabe, Rahm, 3.

Nays, Frost, Gordon, Spalding, 3. There being a tie, the Burgess voted yeas and the substitute was carried.

Mr. Gordon then moved that the fence, coal boxes and other debris be removed from the north side of Pine street, leaving the stais standing for the present. Carried by the following vote:—

Yeas, Frost, Gordon, Holcomb, McCabe, Rahm, Spalding.

Nays, none. Adjourned.

J. KINGSBURY, Secretary.

MESSRS. EDITORS—Our representative, L. D. Taylor, was at home on Saturday and Sunday and returns to Harrisburg to-day. He tells us that the business at the capitol is progressing finely and growing in interest every day, which shows that our representatives and senators are at work; and of one thing we are quite certain, that is this: that so far as Mr. Taylor is concerned he is at work discharging the duties of his office faithfully and with fidelity to all. In connection with his official acts he has procured from the Marietta hatchery some three thousand brook trout and at his own expense has placed them at different points in the main stream (which was once noted for trout) running through our town, beginning above Mr. Adam Innis' tannery. We understand the legislature is already engaged in modifying and making more stringent the law governing the catch in our state, and as our streams and ponds are being well supplied at great expense with fish of different kinds, we trust the law will be rigidly enforced.
