

DAILY TOWANDA REVIEW.

VOLUME II, NO. 223.

TOWANDA, PA., SATURDAY, APRIL 30, 1881.

PRICE ONE CENT.

ADDITIONAL LOCAL.

Personal.

Mrs. Dr. HOMER, of Camptown, was in town yesterday, shopping.

MICHAEL MYLERT, of Laporte, was a guest at the Ward House yesterday.

HESTER PIOLLETT came down from Sayre to attend the Gymnasium hop last evening.

Miss BEEBE, of Owego, is visiting the family of her uncle, Hon. JOS. POWELL, in this place.

JAMES CODDING and HENRY DODGE have formed a co-partnership in the insurance business.

MILLER, the hackman, yesterday bought C. S. FITCH's fine bay horse, paying two hundred dollars.

Miss LUTIE LAINHART has returned to her home from Towanda, where she is engaged in the millinery business.—Owego Gazette.

H. W. CHAMPLIN, who has been attending medical lectures in Ann Arbor, Mich., returned to that city yesterday to pursue his studies.

SENECA ARNOLD has been decorated with an ornate silver badge inscribed "Bridge Police," and now he won't allow a man to smoke even a candy cigar on the bridge.

We are pleased to learn that FRED C. GORE has already been promoted to second-class clerk on the N. Y. & Pittsburg postal route. One boost more will put him at the top of the ladder.

The LeRaysville Advertiser has entered upon its third year. Brother VANGELDER says his success is greater than he anticipated and that he will continue to conduct the paper on the same principle as heretofore.

M. C. MERCUR, J. F. MEANS, and R. A. MERCUR have been elected delegates from Christ Church to attend the General Conference of the diocese of Central Pennsylvania to meet at Mauch Chunk in June next.—Journal.

CHARLEY HUMPHREY and GILL CLARK are the champion horse traders of Northern Pennsylvania. Each have owned nearly forty horses since the first of the present year. Mr. HUMPHREY's operations are not confined to this county, but he is known far and wide as a good judge of horse-flesh, and sharp, though honest in a deal. Some time since a party of gentlemen were endeavoring to "swap" horses in WilkesBarre, but could not come to terms, when a wag, who knew CHARLEY, quietly remarked "you had better postpone the transaction till that little Jew who runs for HUMPHREY BROS. & TRACY comes this way and he'll cut the eye-teeth for all of you."

Mr. M. C. MERCUR, of Towanda, called at our office on Thursday last. Mr. MERCUR was one of the first subscribers to the Standard and has received the paper regularly since its first issue. He says, "although differing with him politically, he thinks it one of the best county papers published in the State, and he does not regret becoming a subscriber, as he has received the full worth of the money invested." Kind words are cheering to the heart of the printer, and we hope that we merit the praise thus bestowed upon us by so distinguished a gentleman as Mr. MERCUR, and we promise our patrons to do the best we can to make the Standard a welcome visitor to their homes, in the future as we have in the past.—Tunkhannock Standard.

FITCH, the confectioner, received a full car load of fruit Thursday night.

The new bridge at Burlington is nearly completed and teams are crossing on it.

Spinach, lettuce, onions, radishes and ripe tomatoes at Rundell's market this morning.

Janitor WATERS and Mr. PAKER have compromised their difficulties without going into Court. Sensible.

Mr. HAIGHT of the steam dye works has made the Germania Band uniforms look as clean and bright as when new.

The board of examiners for Mine Inspectors, of which Mr. JOHN DITCHBURN, of Barclay, is a member, is now in session in Pittsburg. The examination of candidates will begin a week from next Monday.

To-morrow morning Dr. TAYLOR, at the Church of the Messiah, will discuss "Church work and its needs." In the evening his theme will be on the "Problem of life."—Services begin at 10:30 A. M. and 7:30 P. M.

James McCabe, corner Main and Bridge streets, is headquarters for almost everything in the grocery and provision line. A noticeable article in his establishment which will interest dairymen just at this time is a large invoice of pure Ashton salt, purchased directly from "mutual friend" MOULTON, who controls the market in this article in the United States and Canada. Much of the salt offered as "Ashton" is spurious, but Mr. McCabe buys his from first hands and knows it is pure.

Rev. G. D. STROUD is making an effort to raise funds to complete St. Andrew's church, Springville. The small congregation have contributed liberally and Mr. STROUD has made great sacrifices to assist them but a few hundred dollars are still required before the building can be finished and consecrated.—We understand a collection will be taken in Christ Church to-morrow morning in aid of this worthy object and we doubt not it will be a liberal one. We know there are some outside that congregation who will be glad to contribute.

More fresh shad received this morning at Rundell's market.

WEATHER INDICATIONS FOR TO-DAY.—Fair, slightly cooler.
