Green county farmers report an unfavorable outlook for the grain crop in that neighborhood.

The House at Harrisburg has refused to consider at the present time the Senate resolution providing for an adjournment on May 19, which had been amended by the Committee so as to make the date May 26.

It is estimated that over eight millions of dollars of hard cash will be brought into this country by immigrants during the present Summer. Add to this the increased, tax-paying wealth these immigrants will produce by their industry and frugality and some idea may be formed of Europe's loss and our gain.

The mercury is getting up among the nineties in the Senate and it is reported as having a wilting effect on some of the Senators. With the "irrefragable" indications of a break up in the Solid South however, it is not likely to soon wilt the Democratic minority. Each day makes the last ditch look broader and deeper to the Democrats.

Secretary Blaine will soon open correspondence with the British government with a view of securing Michael Boyton's release, if possible, from the English prison in Ireland. It is said that the evidence is conclusive in favor of Boyton, and there is no doubt but what Secretary Blaine will be able to secure his release.

The Democrat who claims to have been elected to Congress last Fall from the Eighth South Carolina district was convicted of murder in 1860, had his death sentence commuted to imprisonment for life, and when the war broke out was commissioned and sent into the field, but was not pardoned, the Governor fearing that he would resign and leave the service unless the alternative of life imprisonment was placed before him. He has not been pardoned yet.—Springfield Union.

Just in proportion as the South countenances and justifies wrong and their attempts to conceal it will evil result from it. Let us have absolutely fair elections, and if bad men are elected to office let us exhaust legal remedies; if they fail then we will be excused by civilization if we put out thieves by force. But let there be no deception about it. Let the whole world know that it is not on account of Republicanism or Democracy or Greenbackism, but on account of scoundrelism.—Vicksburg Herald.

It has been generally assumed that Abraham Lincoln was not classic in his scholarship, but an incident which has recently come to light shows that he was extremely classic in some of his modes of doing things. Jove the king of the gods was accustomed when two heroes were fighting to weigh their fates in scales and the hero whose end of the scale kicked the beam was the one who was to kick the bucket. Mr. Lincoln, so it is reported, after being bored by delegation after delegation and petition after petition in favor of various applicants for office, finally said: "This thing has got to end somehow. Bring a pair of scales, and put in all the petitions and letters in favor of one man and see how much they weigh, and then weigh the other fellow's pile." It was found that one bundle was three fourths of a pound heavier than the other. "Make out an appointment at once," said Lincoln, "for the man who has the heaviest papers," and it was done.
