Rev. H. G. BLAIR, formerly, of Flemingville has become settled in Litchfield, Pa. Mr. BLAIR understands the "art preservative" and is an able preacher.—Oego Record.

There will be a regular meeting of Linta Hose Co., this evening. Business of importance will be considered and every member is earnestly requested to be present.

The ladies of the Church of the Messiah will hold a social in the lecture rooms of the Church this evening. A special novel feature of the entertainment will be a drill by "Red White and Blue Broom Brigade," composed entirely of young ladies. Refreshments consisting of cake, ice cream and coffee will be served.

A CLOSE CALL.—Somebody fired a rifle on Thursday, from this side of the river, near the Court House, and the ball struck a large pane of glass in the front of Mr. GRIDLEY'S house in Fairview, and lodged in the wall on the opposite side of the room. Mr. G. informs us that some time since while standing in his front yard a spent ball which had been discharged from a gun on this side of the river struck the ground only a few feet from him. He picked it up and has it yet.

The account of the Iowa girl who is said to have been hugged to death by her lover has caused "quite a sensation" among the young ladies of Westfield, New York, who recently held a meeting to devise ways and means to prevent another case of death from hugging. They unanimously passed the following preamble and resolutions:

WHEREAS, It is reported that an Iowa girl died recently in her lover's arms while being hugged; and

WHEREAS, Judging from experience, we believe such an event utterly impossible; therefore,

Resolved, That, notwithstanding said report, we are still in favor of hugging. We prefer to run all risks of death rather than have the beautiful, lovely, delightful, perfectly elegant custom abolished.

Resolved, That a copy of these resolutions be sent to the newspapers for publication.
