SCHOOL DIRECTOR'S CONVENTION.—The tri-ennial convention of school directors of Bradford county for the purpose of electing a County Superintendent of public schools for the coming three year assembled in the Court House yesterday. At o'clock Supt. RYAN called the convention to order. On motion of J. B. HINDS, Dr. O. H. ROCKWELL of Monroeton was elected President. On taking the chair the President made a very neat and appropriate speech. C. W. REYNOLDS of Pike, and J. F. BLOCHER of Wyalusing were elected secretaries on motion of E. A. THOMSON.

On motion of Senator ROCKWELL of Troy Borough, seconded by J. E. PIOLLET of Wysox, G. W. RYAN was nominated for County Superintendent. On taking a ballot one hundred and seventy one directors answered to the roll call, all of whom voted for Mr. RYAN, and he was declared unanimously elected.

On motion of S. W. ALVORD, of Towanda, the following resolution was unanimously adopted.

Resolved, By the School Directors of Bradford County in Convention assembled, that we heartily endorse the administration of Prof. G. W. Ryan, Superintendent of schools for the past three years; his indatigable, efficient labors in elevating the standard of education, advancing the interests of the public school system and fitting teachers for their high calling, challenge our admiration and demand our encouragement; his unanimous election for a second term is only a fitting tribute to his zeal and success in the past; as directors we pledge him our united support in the future, and bespeak for him the encouragement and sympathy of all who have any interest in the cause of popular education and the welfare of our youths.

Mr. RYAN being called for came forward and addressed the convention for a few minutes, thanking the directors for the expression of their approval and confidence, invoking their aid in his work for the coming term.

On motion the convention adjourned.
