The railroad company have planted willows along the bank of their lot on the east side of the river, to save it from washing.

The monthly meeting of the Agricultural Society will be held at the Grand Jury Room, Saturday, at 1 p. m. All are invited to attend. The managers of the Society will hold a meeting at the same time and place.

There will be an Old Folks Concert in Mercur Hall, on Friday evening, May 13th, for the benefit of the Towanda Library. Tickets fifty cents. Reserved seats may be secured without extra charge three days before the Concert at C. T. Kirby's.

The school directors of Sheshequin have just provided every school in the township with a copy of Webster's Unabridged Dictionary. This example should be followed by every board in the county. As yet we believe there are only two other townships that have been thus supplied—Warren and Granville.

Monroe.

"We hold these truths to be self-evident," that correspondents and contributors for the REVIEW and other respectable and sprightly sheets, are entitled to a fair share of consideration, as well as editors and publishers of the same. So when parties cannot find it convenient to call at the sanctum editorial and receive a friendly recognition, they may visit the less pretentious grotto of a contributor with the assurance that literary life and habits all tend to courtesy and refinement, especially toward the gentler sex, with their mollifying influences and genial and oft needed influences over us impetuous beings.—Such being the case, we make a note of it, and for a day or two we chronicle those angelic lookings in upon our homely retreat, that we are so gratified to call home, or sanctum.

There was Mrs. W. W. Irvine with her huge basket of benevolence, and her heart full of kindness, making somewheres near her twentieth call of a like import, without the least probability that this is anywhere near the last time that age and infirmity are to be made to leap for joy, because of her unostentatious presence.

There is Mrs. J. F. Woodruff whose countenance a long-time has indicated that she is a second "Rachael," remembering the frost that nipped the first-born, but she is of the same christian faith still, and her practices keep pace with her sturdy, good old Scotch Presbyterianism.

Then there is Mrs. Doctor Hull, without either pill or potion, and with a shining countenance and a cheery heart, dispensing gladness as light dispels gloom, and showing "that a merry heart maketh a cheerful countenance." Yes, and it begets cheerfulness all around it.

There is Mrs. D. J. Sweet and Mrs. Daniel Huntley, with faces and hearts full of the milk of human kindness, all smiles and vivacity, with a good wish for everybody, not forgetting the REVIEW, and a good word for everything, even for the Monroe correspondent. O, how welcome and refreshing such little attentions; they are the green spots in this great Sahara of human life. We find also in this constellation Mrs. D. P. Dodge and last but not least, Mrs. J. L. Rockwell, all noted for lives of human kindness. Right here, like the Apostle, "time would fail us" to make mention of the whole list of Monroe's fair claimants upon our pencil, but this must do for this time. Please call again, ladies. May 3d. N. D. P.
