PATRICK RAGEAN, an old citizen of Wilmot, died a few days ago after a short illness.

Mrs. L. R. GROVE, an elderly lady, of Wyalusing, and formerly of Meshoppen, died a few days ago after a long illness.

The old wooden awnings in front of the Beidleman block, on Bridge street, have been taken away and a neat cornice put up, very greatly improving the appearance of the street.

There will be an Old Folks Concert in Mercur Hall, on Friday evening, May 13th, for the benefit of the Towanda Library. Tickets fifty cents. Reserved seats may be secured without extra charge three days before the Concert at C. T. Kirby's.

IMPORTANT TO REAL ESTATE PURCHASERS.—Every owner of real estate ought to know that the laws of Pennsylvania provide that all deeds and conveyances made but not recorded within six months thereafter shall be adjudged fraudulent and void against any subsequent purchaser or mortgages for valuable consideration. The county records are the only proof of good title.

The following item from the Tunkhannock Standard will interest many of our readers:

Rev. S. L. Conde informs us that he will run three excursions from this point to the sea coast during the coming season. Mr. Conde as an excursion manager is a success. He with his aides-de-camp will get up and run an excursion and give better satisfaction than any other man in this section of the country. We predict that the exchequer of the Presbyterian church at this place will be in a flourishing condition at the end of the season.

Another illustration of the old proverb that a "lie travels faster than the truth," is furnished in the fact that our exchanges are still printing the notice that CHAS. REED, a young gentleman who was quite active in the Murphy movement hereabouts several years ago had been arrested in Kansas City charged with robbery. The Elmira Advertiser stated several days ago, on the authority of a reliable gentleman of that city who had just returned from Kansas City, that Mr. REED was clearly proven to be entirely innocent of the charge. But the world likes to keep a man down.
