

DAILY TOWANDA REVIEW.

VOLUME II, NO. 231.

TOWANDA, PA., TUESDAY, MAY 10, 1881.

PRICE ONE CENT.

ADDITIONAL LOCAL.

Personal.

Rev. G. D. STROUD, of Tunkhannock, was in Towanda yesterday.

Revs. CRAFT of Wyalusing, and STIEN, of Wysox, exchanged pulpits Sunday.

J. O. FROST is slowly improving, but still confined to his room with rheumatism.

G. MORTIMER LEWIS of Wilkesbarre is registered at the Ward House this morning.

Mrs. R. B. HOWELL, formerly of this county, is very sick at her home in Auburn, New York.

We are indebted to Mrs. JAS. DARLING, of Salt Lake, for a copy of the daily Tribune of that city.

Gen MADILL sprained his ankle the other day and is now compelled to use two canes to aid locomotion.

Mrs. GOODRICH has taken up her residence at the Ward House, and Mr. PORTER is preparing to occupy the elegant residence vacated by her.

Mr. WILL BLIGHT, who has been quite ill for a couple of weeks, has entirely recovered, and is about with his business again.—Elmira Advertiser.

W. H. DODGE and PARK SMITH, of the First National Bank, are both on the sick list, and Master FRED BETTS is acting messenger in that institution.

JAS. T. HALE is erecting a handsome house on State street. Mr. L. B. RODGERS is the contractor, and expects to have it ready for occupancy in July.

Two money kings of the county, S. W. POMEROY, of Troy, and N. C. HARRIS, of Athens, neither of whom inherited their wealth, were in Towanda yesterday.

W. R. FASSETT, a printer of more than ordinary ability, who formerly resided in this place, and who was taken to the Danville Insane Asylum about a year ago, was brought back here on Saturday by Mr. KINGSBURY, Secretary of the borough council, and taken to the county hospital at Burlington.

The many friends of T. C. DISBROW, who has of late been studying in the law office of DAVIS, CARNOCHAN & HALL, of Towanda, will be pleased to hear that he was admitted at the last examination, the board being comprised of Messrs. OVERTON, M'PHERSON and HALL. Mr. DISBROW was brought up in Bradford county and has hosts of friends who will extend their congratulations at his present success, and his prospects of a prosperous professional career that is thus opened up before him. He is a young man of unusual ability, a pleasant gentleman personally, and will, no doubt, make his mark in the profession that he has chosen for his life's work.—Elmira Telegram.

The new steamboat made a successful trial trip on the river last evening.

The first old fashioned thunder shower of the season was experienced last evening. It was accompanied by very terrific lightning.

ARCHIE DEVOE, of Elmira, and well known in this place, died in St. Josephs, Mo., yesterday morning from the effects of an overdose of morphine.

The council have voted to place a lamp post at the corner of Huston and Watts streets. This will prove a great convenience to the residents of that neighborhood.

It is said that eye sight is often injured by the inferior quality of glass in spectacles sold by itinerant dealers. The safest plan is to buy spectacles of responsible home merchants.

J. J. KAVANAUGH desires the public to know that he is now giving his entire attention to his own green houses on 4th street, and that he has a large stock of garden plants and flowers.

Mr. U. L. MCCLURE, father of the two young men mentioned by our Monroeton correspondent on Saturday, called yesterday to inform us that the report contained hardly the semblance of truth.

The high reputation FITCH'S ice cream has sustained heretofore, is well maintained this season, and the throngs who visit his parlors is evidence that the people of Towanda appreciate the delicious confection.

M. O. MOODY, manufacturer of the California Pick has just received an order from the Owego Water Works for fifty of these superior implements. All who have used the pick pronounce it superior to any on the market, being both light and durable.

The common amenities of life were aptly illustrated yesterday when two citizens met in front of the REVIEW office. First citizen, "I see you are no longer on the town." Second citizen, "Yes, and I see you are no longer in jail." And they both passed on about their business.

The brick block occupied by S. M. BROWN as a restaurant, in the First Ward, was offered at public sale yesterday afternoon, by J. B. JUDD, president Towanda Mutual Building Association. The property was started at $1000, and after being run up to $3000 the sale was adjourned.

A giant ox, six feet four inches in height and nine-feet-six inches from head to tail, was exhibited on the Square this afternoon. He is the property of MARK WEIL, of Plymouth, and came from Bradford county. Six feet four was the advertised height of BARNUM'S ox, but the general opinion is that this is larger than his was.—Wilkesbarre Union-Leader.

Court Proceedings.

Attorney H. C. Baird presented a petition from the burgess and council of Athens boro. setting forth that said borough had been divided into wards since last election, and praying the court to appoint ward officers for balance of year; whereupon Judge Morrow appointed the following:

First Ward—Judge of Election, F. A. Allen; Inspectors, Henry Carpenter, E. W. Davis; Ward Assessor, M. N. Nevins.

Second Ward—Judge of Election, Jos. M. Ely; Inspectors, D. C. Gray, H. F. Maynard; Ward Assessor, George A. Kinner. It was ordered that the place of holding elections in the first ward should be at the Central House, and in the second ward at the engine house in the first ward.

During the argument of the East Towanda road case last week, J. E. Piolet, who is one of the commissioners of Wysox township, twice interrupted S. R. Payne, Esq. who was arguing the case for the petitioners, by denouncing his assertions as lies. He was severely reprimanded by Judge Morrow and informed that a repetition of the offense would consign him to jail for contempt. Yesterday Mr. Piolet sent the following note to the Judge:

TOWANDA May 9, 1881.

Hon. P. D. MORROW, Judge of the Court of Bradford Co.: I take this mode of apologizing to the Court for having forgotten that I was in Court on Monday of the first week of May term 1881, when I interrupted counsel during his argument. I have no other excuse to offer than that I was listening to the Attorney and did not think. I regret the interruption and ask pardon for the offense.

Respectfully,

J. E. PIOLET.

P. S. With your approval I wish my attorney to make this announcement J. E. P. Com vs John C Marcellus and Eunice Marcellus. Forceful entry and detention. District Attorney Fanning and WM. Maxwell for prosecutor. Overton & Sanderson for defendants. On trial.

On account of illness of defendant the case of the Com vs J A Pendleton was continued to next term.
