

DAILY TOWANDA REVIEW.

VOLUME II, NO. 233.

TOWANDA, PA., THURSDAY, MAY 12, 1881.

PRICE ONE CENT.

ADDITIONAL LOCAL.

Personal.

JOHN E. FOX has returned from his western trip.

Col. MEANS is treating his residence on Main street to a coat of paint.

Rev. C. T. HALLOWELL will deliver the "Decoration Day" address in this place.

Mr. MALLORY will soon remove his coal office from present location to the building just north of it.

JAMES WILBUR having sold his residence on William street, has moved into one of Mr. LANNING'S houses on same street.

We understand Mr. JOHN HINMAN will erect a brick store at Monroeton, and engage in the mercantile business.

G. A. DAYTON & Co. of the Eagle Mills, are so crowded with work that they contemplate putting in another run of stones.

We regret to learn that C. F. TAYLOR, who is now filling a responsible position in a wholesale house in Utica, N. Y., is confined to his house in this place by an attack of rheumatism.

B. R. CARPENTER painter and decorator at MCINTYRE & SPENCER'S carriage factory is quite clever with his brush on canvass. One of his pieces on exhibition at WHITCOMB'S is greatly admired.

Towanda has long pointed with pride to its musical talent, and the very best musicians in town have united to give a grand concert at Mercur Hall to-morrow evening, for a purpose which commends itself to all. Let us see that the Hall is filled.

"Our Record" is the title of a monthly magazine published in the interest of the Home for the Friendless, Buffalo, New York. The paper is ably edited and neatly printed. Mrs. MIXER, a lady well known and greatly admired in Towanda, is the editress. The last number contains Mrs. MERCUR'S article on GEORGE EBERS, the great German Egyptologist, which originally appeared in the Illustrated Christian Weekly.

Deeds neatly printed, for sale at this office.

Like his ice cream, the soda water dispensed by Fitch is unsurpassed in flavor.

Tickets for Old Folks Concert for sale at Kirby's Drug Store.

A new feature of the Decoration Day procession this year will be a company of soldiers' boys.

The railroad company have the steam shovel at work in the bank just opposite town, on the east side of the river.

All should make an effort to hear the last lecture of the Institute course for the present year by Judge INGHAM, of Laporte, on Monday evening next. Subject, "Success in Life." Lecture will commence at 8 o'clock, sharp.

EDGAR SMITH has purchased the line of hacks running between this place and Monroeton. The convenience of the stages has already been demonstrated, and the public should see to it that they are well patronized.

PANSIES.

I send thee pansies while the year is young,
Yellow as sunshine, purple as the night,
Flowers of remembrance ever fondly sung
By all the chiefest of the sons of Light.
And if in recollection lives regret [true,
For wasted days and dreams that were not
I tell thee that the pansy streaked with jet
Is still the hearts-ease that the poets knew.
Take all the sweetness of a gift unsought
And for the pansies send me back a thought.

The young ladies who have combined to maintain a library in this place, are doing a noble work. Aid them in their praiseworthy effort by attending the Old Folks Concert in Mercur Hall to-morrow evening.

STILL INCREASING.—The report of the First National Bank to be found in another column, is a flattering exhibit. It shows the business of this old and popular institution increases with its years. Over $550,000 in deposits, is evidence that there is plenty of money in the country, and that people who possess it have confidence in the First National.

You can enjoy one of the richest musical treats of the season and aid a worthy cause by attending the Old Folks Concert at Mercur Hall to-morrow evening. The musical talent of Towanda will be represented.

Our art critic has not put in an appearance this morning and as a consequence we are unable to give our readers a report of the exceedingly enjoyable entertainment given by Mrs. PEET'S music scholars last evening. It will appear to-morrow.

JAMES BRINK, who had been ill for several weeks, died at the residence of his son-in-law, ex-Sheriff LAYTON, yesterday afternoon. The deceased was seventy-nine years old and had been a resident of this place since the death of his wife, three months ago. The funeral will take place at Mr. LAYTON'S residence on Main street, at half-past nine to-morrow morning, after which the remains will be taken to Waverly for interment.
