The Wyalusing Band will give a strawberry festival on the 28th instant.

Drop in at FITCH'S and get a dish of his ice cream to-day. It will do you good.

A man named ED. SIMONS attempted to ford the river at Blackman's ferry Thursday morning. He didn't succeed in reaching the opposite shore, but successfully drowned both horses.

C. D. PASSAGE drove REED BRAUND'S horse to Canton on Wednesday, and on his way home the following day the animal sickened and died near Granville.

Judge INGHAM will close the Institute course of lectures on Monday evening, on which occasion he will discuss "Success in Life." The lecture is to be delivered in the Institute chapel, and will be free to all.

The Grand Lodge of Odd Fellows of Pennsylvania will hold their annual sessions in Harrisburg, on the 17th, 18th, and 19th days of May. It is expected that from seven hundred to one thousand representatives will be in attendance.

J. A. WILT, Esq., has been elected representative from Bradford Lodge.

A HANDSOME PAPER.—The Illustrated Scientific News for May is before us, looking handsomer, if possible, than any of the preceding issues. Since its change of publishers last January, this magazine has improved with each succeeding number. The present issue of the Illustrated Scientific News is overflowing with handsome engravings and interesting and instructive matter.

Among the various subjects illustrated in this issue is a superb specimen of cut glass ware; an exhaustive article on asphaltum and its use in streets and pavements; a new and ingenious hand-car, shown in operation; a new steel steamer for use in shallow rivers; the new Jobert telescope, and an interesting paper on physics without apparatus, also fully illustrated.

Every number contains thirty-two pages full of engravings of novelties in science and the useful arts. To be had of all news dealers, or by mail of the publishers, Munn & Co., 37 Park Row, New York, at $1.50 per annum; single copies 15 cents.

CREDIT TO WHOM CREDIT IS DUE.—A notice having appeared in the last Argus to the effect that the plumbing at the poor house was done by a Mr. TATE, Commissioner HURST makes a correction in the following card:

The plumbing at poor house was done under the direction of Edward Wilhams, of Towanda, and those employed by him, and is entirely satisfactory so far.
J. W. HURST, Commissioner.

If the plumbing at the poor house reflects credit upon any one, Mr. WILLIAMS, who had the contract, is entitled to it, and it is hardly fair in our cotemporary to cheat him out of it.

"What everybody wants is the best organ for the least amount of money: Therefore everybody wants the Burdett; and when you've said that, you've told the whole story."

So say the brightest and busiest organ dealers throughout the land, who are furnishing this matchless instrument to a musical public, which is rapidly learning to distinguish its marvellously pure and beautiful voice from that which is not music.
