A writer in the Tunkhannock Democrat describing a sociable says:

One of the most enjoyable features of this particular sociable, was the much singing by the "Episcopal Quartette" composed of Messrs. White and Gladke and Mrs. Renshaw and Mrs. Stroud; and I feel perfectly safe in saying that, as a quartette, they have no rival in Tunkhannock.

The following appeared in the Associated Press dispatches from Harrisburg Saturday:

A number of distinguished State officials, consisting of Justices Mergur and Sterrett, of the Supreme Court; Judge Pearson, of Dauphin county; Senators Herr, Royer, Keifer, McNeill, Davies and Roberts; Colonel Farr, Governor Hoyt's private secretary, and Mr. Kinney, of Bradford county, under the escort of Senator Lantz, of Lebanon county, paid a visit to the Cornwall Ore Banks, in Lebanon county, this afternoon, on invitation of Mr. Wilhelm, general manager of the Coleman estate. We have no room this morning for a review of Judge INGHAM's very able and interesting lecture at the Institute last evening and must defer it until to-morrow. It was a fitting lecture for the close of the course as it contained much valuable advice and many useful suggestions, which will afford food for reflection to all who heard it.

There has been a dearth of "button onions" in this market the present spring, but it exists no longer. McCABE, at headquarters, corner Main and Bridge streets, heard of a quantity for sale in Central New York, and immediately telegraphed for them. They arrived yesterday and he is now prepared to supply the demand for them.

A son of W. W. SCOUTON, of Wilmot, met with a frightful accident somewhere in the vicinity of Shickshinny a few days ago, in attempting to get on a freight train. One hand is crushed, one finger cut off, and amputation may be necessary. The SCOUTONS are enterprising people; this young man was attending school at Kingston, and we hear was having a vacation at time of accident. He was brought home on a stretcher, carried from railroad by footmen.

Don't fail to go to JOHN SULLIVAN'S, on Bridge street, for the best five cent cigar.

Fitch's ice cream parlors are now open for the season. His cream needs no recommendation. It is unequaled in quality.

Our popular artist, G. H. WOOD, is gaining a reputation for excellence of work which is making Towanda famous. He received the following flattering letter on Saturday from a delighted customer:

CAMDEN, N. Y., May 11th, 1881.

Mr. GEO. H. WOOD:
My Dear Sir—The picture arrived this morning, and was paid for and taken in less than two seconds after it was opened. It is without doubt the finest picture of any kind in town; in fact, the finest I ever saw at any price.

I cannot compliment you sufficiently for your talent, and assure you that you will never regret the labor bestowed on this piece of work; it will be productive of other similar work from this section and to no small amount. I have no doubt that by putting it on exhibition in window I could secure you hundreds of dollars worth of work. I have compared it with former one of same subject made by you at $15 I think, and this is very much finer.

My wife, who is a daughter of the subject, is perfectly carried away; you may consider her under obligations to you. Again thanking you, I remain,
Yours, &c.
A. C. WOODRUFF.

If the person who took a small new shawl from the basement of the Universalist church on the evening of the "broom brigade" entertainment, returns it this week the matter will be kept quiet. It may be sent to the REVIEW office.

LOST.—On Main street, near Fitch's store, an overcoat, the finder will be rewarded by leaving the same at this office.
W. P. ROCKWELL.

SEED POTATOES.—I have several choice varieties of early seed potatoes for sale.
E. W. HALE.

FOR SALE CHEAP.—A "Good Morning" Range, a foot turning lathe, and a foot jig saw.
N. P. HICKS.

Seven steamers sailed for Europe from New York on Saturday with over seven hundred cabin passengers. Numbers were unable to secure accommodations. Heavy cargoes were also carried.

Both the New York Senators Resign!

Remarkable Coup de'tat.

A great sensation was created in the U. S. Senate by the announcement yesterday morning that Senators Conkling and Platt had sent their resignations to the Governor of New York. This action grows out of the nomination of Robertson and is regretted by all republicans. We believe the President to be right, and the senators wrong in the contest which has led to this very remarkable move, but their withdrawal from the senate is a calamity and the great mass of republicans will consider the step neither wise nor patriotic. It may be simply a shrewd stratgetic move to secure an endorsement of their course and that they had the assurance before they resigned that they would be re-elected by the legislature now in session.

The following are the letters which were read to the Senate:

WASHINGTON, D. C., May 16, 1881.

SIR—Will you please announce to the Senate that my resignation as Senator of the United States from the State of New York has been forwarded to the Governor of the State. I have the honor to be with great respect, your obedient servant,
ROSCOE CONKLING.
