Dr. Muller's Great Faith.

Rev. D. Muller, of orphan school fame in Bristol, England, addressed a large audience last night in the Second Presbyterian church, Pittsburg. He has founded seventy-five day schools, thirty-six dumb schools and six adult schools, all of which are being successfully carried on by faith and prayer. He said: Each boy at fourteen receives an outfit and is bound to a tradesman of Christian family; likewise each girl at seventeen receives an outfit and a place in a Christian family. Our milk costs annually $10,000 and our expenses equal $220,000 yearly. In all and for all we ask God only, and each assistant is required to never reveal our wants. The only time the public learns of our standing is when we publish our annual statements. For forty-seven years I have labored in Bristol, and been thus fed as by the ravens from God's hand, and bountifully too. Never once have the children been supperless or hungry. Many infidels and atheists have been converted by a knowledge of our success. We have trusted in God, and have never been confounded. We have seen many infidels, atheists and skeptics renounce forever their belief.

Dr. Miller observes the following principles in his work:

- Ask God and never man for all needs.
- Depend upon and rest assured in faith that God who hears will answer prayer.
- Never receive aught save through God; and never reveal to the outside world their wants.—Evening Mail.

There is a savor of old times in a bit of news which comes from Griffin, Ala. Some theatrical manager of more enterprise than prudence, undertook to present to the Griffins the well-known drama of "Uncle Tom's Cabin." This roused a sentiment usually supposed to be extinct; and when the curtain went up the actors received tokens of the public feeling in the shape of eggs. The Eufala (Ala.) Times approves this proceedings, and expresses the opinion that "the Griffin boys did the company right." It proposes that the actors shall be similarly greeted and treated "in every town in which the insulting play may be presented." It is hardly necessary to indulge in any great amount of indignation at this proceeding. It seems to show not so much wickedness as stupidity. There is no more sense in it than in the rage of a bull at the sight of a red rag. Possibly it indicates not only ignorance but idiocy—a total inability to comprehend in the least the situation. No man can be blamed for declining to pay his money to see "Uncle Tom's Cabin," but when he has paid the opportunity, besides wasting the eggs?

The advantage of living in a country so vast that no crop can be a failure in all parts of it is illustrated by late reports from the wheat fields. Cool-headed men in Minnesota are predicting a large yield of the best quality, owing to the reserve of moisture stored in the soil at an unusual depth, while in Ohio word come that the crop of 1881, contrary to premature reports, is likely to be above the average and may be the largest ever harvested in the State. With these comfortable promises to lean on, it is not worth while to despond over the news from Kansas. The Levenworth Times frankly admits that the wheat crop of that State will undoubtedly fall very much below the average. According to that journal there has been no little unwarranted boasting of an enormous yield, but it is more honest and a better policy to face the disagreeable fact. The prospects were never better for a greater crop than on March 1st, but that month has a habit of upsetting many fair hopes, and has done its worst by hundreds of wheat fields.

DR. A. E. BURR'S
HOMOEOPATHIC LUNG SYRUP.

This remedy is something new, both as to name and composition. This is one of the wonders of the world. This Syrup, I claim, is better and more effective than any other ever offered to the people of America or any other country, and what I say of this I can prove. This Syrup, like the Pills, is harmless and safe. It contains no opium or other narcotic poison, like the most Syrup, and is not disagreeable to take. Any child will take it. And it will cure any and all inflammations arising from Cold. It is superior to all others in every respect and especially for the following reasons:

- 1st. It will cure Croup every time.
  - 2d. It will cure Inflammation of the Lungs.
  - 3d. It will cure Quinsy.
  - 4th It will cure Whooping Cough.
  - 5th It will cure Bronchitis.
  - 6th It will cure Hoarseness.
  - 7th It will cure Sore Throat.
  - 8th It will cure any Cold.
  - 9th It will cure Congestion of the Lungs.
  - 10th It will cure any Cough.
  - 11th It will cure Scarlet Fever.
  - 12th. It is the best remedy that any one can take for Consumption, and if taken in the first stage I will guarantee a cure.
  - 13th. It is perfectly safe for all ages as there is nothing in its composition that can harm a child.
