HEAVEN'S PHONOGRAPH.

"For every idle word that man shall speak,"
For every low-breathed curse his lips shall mutter,
I've always read that man shall give account
At the last day, to his confusion utter.

Scoffers have sneered, "What! every word recorded,
Nothing illegible on page of gold?"—
Earth has its phonograph—is Heaven without it?
Scoffer, beware!—the phonograph is old.

We are in receipt of the May number of the "Saalfeld Ten Cent Library," published by R. A. Saalfeld, 839 Broadway, New York, the first number of which a few weeks ago we took great pleasure in commending to all lovers of music and presaged an immense success to the enterprising publishers. With the present number, just received, they have anticipated the wishes of the people and have included a Lancers on Olivette, which has had a long run in London and is all the rage in New York; together with a beautiful set of Waltzes, the "Amatori," a charming song of Danks, "When first I saw my Darling's Face," and another piece.

The April number contains a complete Potpourri on Billee Taylor, whilst each and every one of the series is a marvel of cheapness, and it is certainly astonishing that 16 pages of the most popular music of the day can be sold for ten cents.

Catalogues mailed on receipt of a three cent stamp by the publisher.

SOLDIERS' SONS.—All soldiers' sons over the age of eight years are requested to meet at the Armory of Co. A., on Saturday, May 21st, at 4 o'clock, P. M., for the purpose of making a preliminary organization to participate in the decoration day ceremonies as a body of sons of soldiers of the late rebellion. Parents are requested to come with their sons, if possible. All are requested to be informed as to company and regiment in which the father served. It is hoped that the soldiers will see that their sons may be taught the proper observance of decorating now in order, that they will understand its meaning when they, as sons of soldiers, will be expected to take our places in the observance of these memorial services.

CREDIT TO WHOM CREDIT IS DUE.—A notice having appeared in the last Argus to the effect that the plumbing at the poor house was done by a Mr. TATE, Commissioner HURST makes a correction in the following card:

The plumbing at poor house was done under the direction of Edward Williams, of Towanda, and those employed by him, and is entirely satisfactory so far.

J. W. HURST, Commissioner.

If the plumbing at the poor house reflects credit upon any one, Mr. WILLIAMS, who had the contract, is entitled to it, and it is hardly fair in our cotemporary to cheat him out of it.

I had been a great sufferer from Neuralgia for years and had consulted a great many different physicians, but got no cure until I took Dr. Burr's Neuralgia and Sick Headache Pills; they cured me and I have recommended to over fifty persons and I have never known them to fail. They are also the best nervous and dyspeptic pill I ever saw.

"What everybody wants is the best organ for the least amount of money: Therefore everybody wants the Burdett; and when you've said that, you've told the whole story."
