Mrs. Burns, in her last letter from Washington to the Elmira Advertiser thus pleasantly photographs our U. S. Senators:

In the front row of seats, on the Republican side of the Senate Chamber, sits Don Cameron, of Pennsylvania. To my thinking he is one of the handsomest men in the Senate. He is straight and slender as a Lombardy poplar and carries himself as erect as an Indian. His abundant hair is of that peculiar red-gold shade so often seen in the paintings of the old Venetian masters. The firm mouth is shaded by a long, silky moustache. The steel-gray eyes and strongly marked chin are indicative of the resolute will which his father, Gen. Simon Cameron, and himself have inherited from their staunch Scottish ancestors. Of the former it has often been said "he was never known to forget a favor or was false to a friend." I am inclined to believe that the same thing can be said of his son; and surely no man need ask for higher praise.

Senator Mitchell, the newly elected Republican Senator from Pennsylvania, is just now "the observed of all observers," especially by the visitors from the Keystone State. One of the doorkeepers assured me that no Senator received more calls and cards than had Mr. Mitchell during the present session of the Senate. A method of showing attention and respect that I opine Senator Mitchell would willingly dispense with. But then one of the penalties of greatness in the Congress of the United States is this same shower of paste boards, "from your constituents, you know."

Mr. Mitchell's election was quite as much of a surprise to himself as to his friends. In fact, like Lord Byron, "he woke up one morning and found himself famous." His election was preceded by a fierce and hotly-contested battle between opposing factions of the Republican party, which threatened to destroy its unity and harmony in the grand old Commonwealth. It was with a jubilant sense of satisfaction that all who desired the prosperity of true Republicanism, heard the glad tidings that the choice had fallen on one whose integrity of purpose in the past was a guaranty of his fidelity in the future. A certain sturdy self-reliance of character inspired confidence, which his straightforward course as a Republican in Congress had strengthened. Mr. Mitchell has a fine physique. His complexion is fair and ruddy. He has abundant brown hair, which he disarranges by running his fingers through it when laboring under excitement. His kindly blue eyes and magnetic smile are sure to win confidence and set the fluttering heart of the office seeker at ease. In justice to himself, Mr. Mitchell ought to make a holocaust of several photographers and engravers; for the pictures that are called portraits, are positive caricatures. Not one of them look half as well as he does. No Senator ever entered upon his responsible duties who more fully possessed the admiring regards of his constituents.

The movement against the Jews in Russia is on so large a scale as to divert public attention from the Nihilists. The cause of the ostracism, persecution, is said to be purely social, not religious. The Ukraine is described as filled with Jews. As in other European countries they are money-lenders, spirit dealers and traders, and they pretty much keep in hand both landlords and peasants. The latter probably have discovered, like other people, that "it is easier to kill and torture than to pay honest debts." That has been the case we believe, in the history of the Jewish people. Sir Walter Scott has made it pretty plain that such a condition of things once prevailed in England, and that the race was made to suffer pretty much as they now do in Russia. Money making is becoming a sin, and the quicker people who need the lesson realize it, the less killing of Jews will there be in Russia, as an easy way to pay creditors.

DR. A. E. BURR'S HOMOEOPATHIC LUNG SYRUP.

This remedy is something new, both as to name and composition. This is one of the wonders of the world. This Syrup, I claim, is better and more effective than any other ever offered to the people of America or any other country, and what I say of this I can prove. This Syrup, like the Pills, is harmless and safe. It contains no opium or other narcotic poison, like the most Syrup, and is not disagreeable to take. Any child will take it. And it will cure any and all inflammations arising from Cold. It is superior to all others in every respect and especially for the following reasons:

- 1st. It will cure Croup every time.
- 2d. It will cure Inflammation of the Lungs.
- 3d. It will cure Quinsy.
- 4th It will cure Whooping Cough.
- 5th It will cure Bronchitis.
- 6th It will cure Hoarseness.
- 7th It will cure Sore Throat.
- 8th It will cure any Cold.
- 9th It will cure Congestion of the Lungs.
- 10th It will cure any Cough.
- 11th It will cure Scarlet Fever.
- 12th. It is the best remedy that any one can take for Consumption, and if taken in the first stage I will guarantee a cure.
- 13th. It is perfectly safe for all ages as there is nothing in its composition that can harm a child.
