

DAILY TOWANDA REVIEW.

VOLUME II, NO. 239.

TOWANDA, PA., THURSDAY, MAY 19, 1881.

PRICE ONE CENT.

ADDITIONAL LOCAL.

Personal.

Mrs. MORSE of Rochester, N. Y., is visiting her parents on York avenue.

Judge GEARHART of Tunkhannock was registered at the Ward House yesterday.

Brother WALES of the Waverly Review was in town yesterday and made us a brief call.

Ex-sheriff AHIRA GAY, one of the most popular and genial democrats of Wyoming county, was in Towanda yesterday.

Rev. C. T. HALLOWELL, R. M. WELLES and H. W. WELLS, of the Towanda Baptist church attended a church council in Terrytown yesterday.

Mrs. O. J. CHUBBUCK yesterday morning received a telegram summoning her to the bedside of her aged father who is alarmingly ill at his home in Wyoming county, and went down on No 7.

Dr. G. W. PECK, President of Hedding College, Illinois, and his uncle, J. K. PECK, of Tioga, N. Y., were guests of B. M. PECK, Esq., on Chestnut street, Tuesday evening. The former was on his way to join his uncle, Bishop PECK, for a trip to Europe.

The weather is still cool and lowry.

The editor of the Waverly Review is doubly blessed—twin girls.

Shrewd advertisers have encroached upon our space to-day so that we are compelled to curtail our reading matter.

All ladies interested in the work of decorating the soldiers' graves, are requested to meet at the Grand Jury Room at 4 o'clock Friday p. m. By order of Com.

Speaking of ice cream, the best judges of the article do say that Maj. SEELY'S is "just boss." We have no doubt you will confirm this testimony when you taste the cream.

A large majority of the Republicans here who have always been classed as "stalwarts" are outspoken in condemnation of the course pursued by Senators CONKLING and PLATT.

SEELY has already added to the menu at his popular hotel and restaurant, "spring chickens." The Major is ever on the alert for delicacies to tempt the appetites of his guests.

As GUY PECK was returning from a lecture at the Graded School building on Tuesday evening, he fell into the ditch of the Water Works which had been carelessly left open without any warning signal, in front of his father's house, and was quite badly injured besides being covered with mud. It would seem that the borough authorities should compel the Water Works to at least place proper guards where they are allowed to keep their ditches open.

Unauthorized and unsolicited we take the liberty of repeating to the readers of the REVIEW a notice in regard to a collection that we understand was announced in the Episcopal Church last Sunday. The liberal charity and benevolence of the Rev. B. J. DOUGLASS, during his long residence in this place, though not ostentatiously displayed, were well-known to many. He is now rector of a small parish at Georgetown, Del., and has been compelled to incur quite a debt in repairing the church, for the payment of which he has become personally responsible. The present rector of Christ Church, Rev. J. S. BEERS, very properly assuming that his congregation, and perhaps some others, would esteem it a pleasure to aid in raising the sum, will take a collection for that purpose next Sunday morning. Those who cannot be present on that occasion can send the amount through the post office or by some friend. It is hoped the sum realized may be commensurate with the great services the Reverend gentleman rendered this community during a pastorate of sixteen years, in which the Episcopal congregation increased from a struggling little band to a flourishing parish. "There is that scattereth and yet increaseth."

Monroe.

Mrs. Dr. Hull, and her daughter Jennie left home this morning (the 18th) to look in upon friends at Union, Binghamton, Vestal, Montrose and intermediate places, at this pleasant season of the year. They will be out two or three weeks. A pleasant time to them.

Esquire Cranmer is slowly recovering from an attack of lung fever. He will be indoors yet for a few days.

Mrs. Lucius Griggs is suffering from disease superinduced by the extreme heat of a few days back.

Mrs. Rev. E. H. Cranmer has suffered from another paralytic shock. She is mending at present writing.

Mrs. Moses Kellogg, wife of M. Kellogg deceased, if living, lies at the point of death, from age and infirmities.

E. F. Fowler Esq., and Miss Lizzie Mullan, also Guy Kellogg Esq., and Miss Ella Walburn, are to be married on the 25th inst. Remember the printer with that cake.

Small boy stole sugar, arrested, confessed, promised and settled.

WEATHER INDICATIONS FOR TO-DAY.—
Partly cloudy, light rains, stationary temperature.

The News Condensed.

Judge Robertson was yesterday confirmed by acclamation.

An earthquake shock was felt in New Hampshire yesterday.

The estate of the late Mark Hopkins has been appraised at $20,000,000.

The General Assembly of the Presbyterian church convenes in Buffalo to-day.

Accounts from Ireland agree that the recent arrests there have not checked agitation.

The President yesterday informed the Senate that he had two hundred additional nominations to send in.

Three indictments have been found by the grand jury of the U. S. Court in Philadelphia against Black, Cason, Frank and Arbuckle, for conspiring to defraud the government in connection with the Star route contracts.

Effie Person, aged 14, committed suicide in New York yesterday by shooting. It is supposed the act was committed because her father accused her of stealing. The mother of the girl claims that the shooting was accidental.

The contract for postal cards, which has been awarded to a New York firm, will result in a saving of $30,000 to the government during the contract term of four years. The number of cards required is estimated at 2,000,000,000.

Senator Hill, of Georgia, made a strong speech against the confirmation of Fred Douglass, arguing that he made an unsatisfactory record as Marshal, and was not qualified for the duties of his new position. Several Republicans shared the same view.

There was a great recovery in the New York provision market yesterday, pork advancing to 1.15, and lard to 60 cents.—Heavy receipts of canal grain were reported this morning, consisting of 400,000 bushels of corn, and 200,000 of wheat. Prices declined somewhat. Ocean freights were firmer, and a part of the late heavy decline was recovered.

J. P. Howe, son of bishop Howe, and Miss Katharine Scott Woodward, daughter of the late Judge Woodward, were married at Reading last Thursday. The bridesmaids were Miss Carrie Buckalew of Bloomsburg, Miss Mamie Hoyt of Harrisburg, daughter of Governor Hoyt; Miss Elora Armitage of Philadelphia, and Miss Annie Stewart of Reading. They, as well as the bride, were all dressed in white and carried baskets of flowers.

You can always get good ice cream at C. S. FITCH'S. Don't you forget it.

Don't fail to go to JOHN SULLIVAN'S, on Bridge street, for the best five cent cigar.

SOLDIERS' SONS.—All soldiers' sons over the age of eight years are requested to meet at the Armory of Co. A., on Saturday, May 21st, at 4 o'clock, P. M., for the purpose of making a preliminary organization to participate in the decoration day ceremonies as a body of sons of soldiers of the late rebellion. Parents are requested to come with their sons, if possible. All are requested to be informed as to company and regiment in which the father served. It is hoped that the soldiers will see that their sons may be taught the proper observance of decorating now in order, that they will understand its meaning when they, as sons of soldiers, will be expected to take out places in the observance of these memorial services.

BY ORDER OF COMMITTEE.

Fitch's ice cream parlors are now open for the season. His cream needs no recommendation. It is unequalled in quality.

HAMMOCKS!—A good one for 99c. Mexican Grass Hammocks, $1.75 to $2, at C. P. Welles' Crockery Store.

IMPORTANT TO TRAVELERS.—Special inducements are offered you by the BURLINGTON ROUTE. It will pay you to read their advertisement to be found elsewhere in this issue.

Have you been to Titus' confectionery store and tried some of that celebrated Wyoming county Ice Cream? We have and unhesitatingly pronounce it the best we have ever eaten. Call and get some.

The next session of the Northern District Convention of Good Templars will be held at Milan, May 31st and June 1st.

P. MCNERNEY, Dist. Sec.

CREDIT TO WHOM CREDIT IS DUE.—A notice having appeared in the last Argus to the effect that the plumbing at the poor house was done by a Mr. TATE, Commissioner HURST makes a correction in the following card:

The plumbing at poor house was done under the direction of Edward Williams, of Towanda, and those employed by him, and is entirely satisfactory so far.

J. W. HURST, Commissioner.
If the plumbing at the poor house reflects credit upon any one, Mr. WILLIAMS, who had the contract, is entitled to it, and it is hardly fair in our cotemporary to cheat him out of it.

MARRIED.

ESENWINE—CAMPBELL.—At the Presb. Parsonage, Monroeton, May 17th, by Rev. Hallock Armstrong, Mr. Charles Edward Esenwine of Towanda, and Miss Maggie E. Campbell of Forks Sullivan Co., Pa.
