Senator Mitchell vs. Conkling.

EDITORS REVIEW:—We have just seen a private letter from Senator John I. Mitchell in which he expresses himself as in accord with the President, and that he knew no reason at present why Robertson should not be confirmed. We think the people will rejoice that we have a Senator who has the courage to "set up for himself." Republicans have no cause to be alarmed at the resignation of Conkling and Platt. It is simply evident that Conkling knows he is defeated, and that he proposes to step down and out of the Senate long enough to let Robertson be confirmed. Both Senators will undoubtedly be their own successors, as soon as the New York Legislature takes action in the matter. We are sorry, however, that Senator Platt was not brave enough to "set up for himself," also. It is certainly a discredit to a great State like New York, that her two senators are so narrow-minded, that they must get in a rage and pass in their resignations, about so trivial a matter as one office in their State.

GAMBETTA.

In Texas the public lands are at the disposal of the State Government. A few weeks ago the Texas Legislature passed a bill declaring that all persons who are now residents of the State, and who were residents at the opening of the war and enlisted in the military service of the State or Confederate States, and were permanently disabled while in the service shall each receive a land certificate for 1,280 acres of land. The provision applies to widows whose husbands died or were killed in service, and who show that they have not property to the value of $1,000. This shows that Texas is disposed to treat the disabled soldiers of the Confederacy more generously than the National Government has treated the veterans of the Union army. And yet there are those who complain that the government has done too much for the soldiers that fought its battles. As Texas is now a reconstructed State, the Legislature might have included Texas veterans of all classes, as well as Confederates, but it didn't.

A witty politician who sometimes visits the REVIEW office, says the Garfield-Conkling affair reminds him very forcibly of the anecdote of the parrot and monkey: "A pious lady purchased from a sailor a parrot which was guaranteed not to use profane language. It happened the lady was the owner of a pet monkey, and soon after bringing the bird home, she had occasion to go out on a shopping expedition for a few hours, leaving the parrot and monkey alone. When she returned she found the floor strewn with feathers and the parrot sat perched over the door, with only a single feather left in his tail, and the monkey was master of the situation. When the Mistress cast her eye toward the parrot he explained the situation by exclaiming, 'we've had a h—l of a time.'"

A California paper gives a loud scold to women "who pay dressmaker's bills with the money which ought to be purchasing a home or paying for their children's education." We will stake four nickels against a cent that the same editor drinks at a San Francisco bar and smokes his Havana regularly. We doubt not that some wives are improvident and extravagant, but for every woman of this class there are a score of men guilty of the same fault. As a rule, wives and mothers are more economical and provi-dent than husbands and fathers. While we would not screen the women whose vanity leads them to such excess as to justify the criticism made, yet, to speak of them as a class in this way, is an unjustifiable slander, without regard to facts.

A large number of Nihilists will shortly be expelled from Leipsic, including probably three leading members of the Reichstag.

DR. A. E. BURR'S
HOMOEOPATHIC LUNG SYRUP.

This remedy is something new, both as to name and composition. This is one of the wonders of the world. This Syrup, I claim, is better and more effective than any other ever offered to the people of America or any other country, and what I say of this I can prove. This Syrup, like the Pills, is harmless and safe. It contains no opium or other narcotic poison, like the most Syrup, and is not disagreeable to take. Any child will take it. And it will cure any and all inflammations arising from Cold. It is superior to all others in every respect and especially for the following reasons:

- 1st. It will cure Croup every time.
- 2d. It will cure Inflammation of the Lungs.
- 3d. It will cure Quinsy.
- 4th It will cure Whooping Cough.
- 5th It will cure Bronchitis.
- 6th It will cure Hoarseness.
- 7th It will cure Sore Throat.
- 8th It will cure any Cold.
- 9th It will cure Congestion of the Lungs.
- 10th It will cure any Cough.
- 11th It will cure Scarlet Fever.
- 12th. It is the best remedy that any one can take for Consumption, and if taken in the first stage I will guarantee a cure.
- 13th. It is perfectly safe for all ages as there is nothing in its composition that can harm a child.
