The foundations of the new forging and axle works in Sayre, have already been laid and the building will be ready for occupancy in about sixty days.

All ladies interested in the work of decorating the soldiers' graves, are requested to meet at the Grand Jury Room at 4 o'clock this afternoon. By order of Com.

The Bradford County School Journal is published professedly in the interest of education and for the information of directors and teachers. The issue of Tuesday last contains the proceedings of the convention which was held May 3, to elect a county superintendent. Enterprising.

While taking depositions on an application for a saloon license in Monroeton the other day, the opponents of the license contended that boys who would not go to a hotel, frequented saloons. "The reason boys do not go to hotels," said the attorney for the applicant, "is that they are afraid of meeting their fathers there." A little rough on pater familias, but too true.

An Elmira Advertiser correspondent writing from Canton says:

Saturday night Horace Tuttle fired several shots at a party of men who attempted to force an entrance into his hotel at a late hour. No one was injured among the assaulting party, who were probably considerably surprised and somewhat frightened at this spirited resistance of the landlord of the American.

A Visit to the Poor-house.

A few days ago we found ourselves wending our way to the above mentioned place, for the first time since the occupants were there. On reaching our destination we were kindly escorted by one of the attendants through the entire building, but as everyone has heard a description of the building so many times we will only speak of the inmates. They are all ages from infants to gray haired men and women. And such a variety of forms and features as meet one as we pass from room to room closely scanning each countenance as if expecting to find written there the cause of their present condition. Over one hundred (we were informed) now occupy the building and but one of the number seemed to be really happy; she said she thought it a beautiful place. Well! perhaps it is, but to your humble correspondent it seemed more like a prison. Some seemed to realize their condition to its fullest extent, while others of the more ignorant class went around in a matter-of-fact way as though they had never aspired to anything higher. While passing through our attention was particularly drawn to one who showed by every look and move the mark of a gentleman; they called him insane but notwithstanding his insanity and present humiliation it is very evident he has known better days, and the question arose in our mind what could have brought him to this? Young in years, intelligent in conversation and comparatively a king among the rest; but Oh! the hopeless despair depicted on his countenance was enough to melt the hardest heart to tears. We had the pleasure—if it could be called by that name—of seeing them surround the spread table, for their comfort everything in that line seemed well done and in order. One lady (insane) refusing to eat with the poor, said she had the promise of the best rooms in the house if she would go and now she would have them and eat with the family besides she guessed she wasn't going to associate with the poor. That was the most comical thing we saw or heard. But taking the whole scene together it certainly forms a sad, dreary picture for thoughtful minds.

Bowman, ("The Little Hero"), Miss Dora Hollon ("The Drunkard's Wife") and Miss Nora Bacon ("The Starless Crown"); also, an essay by Bro. A. T. You can always get good ice cream at C. S. FITCH'S. Don't you forget it.

Don't fail to go to JOHN SULLIVAN'S, on Bridge street, for the best five cent cigar.

Fitch's ice cream parlors are now open for the season. His cream needs no recommendation. It is unequalled in quality.

Have you been to Titus' confectionery store and tried some of that celebrated Wyoming county Ice Cream? We have and unhesitatingly pronounce it the best we have ever eaten. Call and get some.

SOLDIERS' SONS.—All soldiers' sons over the age of eight years are requested to meet at the Armory of Co. A., on Saturday, May 21st, at 4 o'clock, P. M., for the purpose of making a preliminary organization to participate in the decoration day ceremonies as a body of sons of soldiers of the late rebellion. Parents are requested to come with their sons, if possible. All are requested to be informed as to company and regiment in which the father served. It is hoped that the soldiers will see that their sons may be taught the proper observance of decorating now in order, that they will understand its meaning when they, as sons of soldiers, will be expected to take our places in the observance of these memorial services.

BY ORDER OF COMMITTEE.

The next session of the Northern District Convention of Good Templars will be held at Milan, May 31st and June 1st.

P. MCNERNEY, Dist. Sec.

CREDIT TO WHOM CREDIT IS DUE.—A notice having appeared in the last Argus to the effect that the plumbing at the poor house was done by a Mr. TATE, Commissioner HURST makes a correction in the following card:

The plumbing at poor house was done under the direction of Edward Williams, of Towanda, and those employed by him, and is entirely satisfactory so far.

J. W. HURST, Commissioner.

If the plumbing at the poor house reflects credit upon any one, Mr. WILLIAMS, who had the contract, is entitled to it, and it is hardly fair in our cotemporary to cheat him out of it.

CAMDEN, N. Y., May 11th, 1881.

Mr. GEO. H. WOOD:

My Dear Sir—The picture arrived this morning, and was paid for and taken in less than two seconds after it was opened. It is without doubt the finest picture of any kind in town; in fact, the finest I ever saw at any price.

I cannot compliment you sufficiently for your talent, and assure you that you will never regret the labor bestowed on this piece of work; it will be productive of other similar work from this section and to no small amount. I have no doubt that by putting it on exhibition in window I could secure you hundreds of dollars worth of work. I have compared it with former one of same subject made by you at $15 I think, and this is very much finer.

My wife, who is a daughter of the subject, is perfectly carried away; you may consider her under obligations to you. Again thanking you, I remain,
Yours, &c.
