SECOND PARK CONCERT—LAST EVENING.—The mild weather, the published program, but chiefly the popularity of our Germania Band, brought out an immense audience, located at all available listening positions, to the Pagoda Concert, last evening.

The opening March, Mexico, a composition of good breadth of inspiring harmony and a majestic yet spirited movement, was executed with well practiced precision and in a finished style worthy of a metropolitan band or orchestra. The second number: Yankee Musical Jokes, gave spring like sprinklings of our National Airs and some soft, elastic-toned solos from the cornet of Mr. FRED SMITH. Young America Polka, was sparkling and sprightly. In this the double-tonguing of Mr. SMITH, in the solos, was an artistic success and a delight to many appreciative ears. No. 5. Andante and Waltz. The first movement was beautiful and impressive. In the Waltz the descending, undulating melody recurring several times, and played by Mr. F. S. KINGSBURY, was peculiar and very pleasing. Let us credit the Germania for another delightful evening.

Fitch, the confectioner has just received a large invoice of flags and is prepared to fill orders for Decoration Day.

You can always get good ice cream at C. S. FITCH'S. Don't you forget it.

CREDIT TO WHOM CREDIT IS DUE.—A notice having appeared in the last Argus to the effect that the plumbing at the poor house was done by a Mr. TATE, Commissioner HURST makes a correction in the following card:

The plumbing at poor house was done under the direction of Edward Williams, of Towanda, and those employed by him, and is entirely satisfactory so far.

J. W. HURST, Commissioner.

If the plumbing at the poor house reflects credit upon any one, Mr. WILLIAMS, who had the contract, is entitled to it, and it is hardly fair in our cotemporary to cheat him out of it.
