Sketch of William H. Robertson—His Public Services.

Judge William H. Robertson, the new Collector of the Port of New York, has long been prominent in New York politics. He is a native of Westchester county, and is 58 years of age. He was educated at Bedford, Westchester County, and was admitted to the bar in 1847. He was elected as Superintendent of the Bedford Common Schools soon after attaining his majority, and retained that position for many years. He was first elected to the Assembly in 1849, being then but 26 years of age, and served for two years. He was elected to the State Senate from the Westchester district in 1854 and was a Senator in '55, '72, '73, '74, '75, '76, and '77. He gave a vigorous support to the bill establishing free schools through the State. He served in the Senate as Chairman of the Committee on Commerce and Navigation, as Chairman of the Committee on Rules, Library and Judiciary and as President pro tem. in 1874, '75, '76, and '77. He was County Judge of Westchester County for twelve years, being consecutively elected for three terms. He was chosen as Presidential Elector in 1860 and was then elected to a seat in the Fortieth Congress. He was delegate to the Republican National Conventions in 1864 and 1876 and 1880, and he has been repeatedly sent as delegate to the Whig and Republican State conventions. He served as member of the Republican State committee for six consecutive years and was made Chairman of the Military Committee appointed by Governor Morgan in 1862 to raise and organize State troops in the Eighth Senatorial District. He was the Commissioner appointed to superintend the draft in Westchester County in the early part of the war and was the Brigade Inspector of the 7th Brigade for six years. In 1876 he received from Williams College the degree of LL. D. He was elected to the present Senate by a majority of 147 over his Democratic competitor, Mr. Richard Lathers. At the opening of the session he was re-elected President pro tem. of the Senate. For more than thirty years Judge Robertson has been in public life. When the anti-third-term feeling was aroused in the Empire State, Judge Robertson, as a delegate to Chicago, became the leader of the Independent Republicans, and in the National Convention fully carried out the determination which he had previously openly declared, and led the anti-Grant forces in the revolt in the State delegation. He was for Blaine, but when the break came he went with his colleagues for Garfield.

It was an old time Universalist who declared that no thoughtful man could believe in a hell and disbelieve in the perfect goodness of God in the presence of that simple argument, a dish of strawberries and cream. It is gratifying to learn that the Universalist's argument of strawberries will be very plentiful this season, and also a better quality than heretofore. A splendid crop is predicted, and improved species have been steadily crowding out the older varieties. The next warm weather following these recent rains will bring the berries to a marketable condition in large quantities.—Albany Express.

Will the legislature of New York stultify itself? Only a few weeks ago the members passed a resolution thanking the President for appointing Robertson. Conkling and Platt now ask them to censure Mr. Garfield by endorsing their silly action in resigning because the President would not withdraw Robertson's nomination!
