The Rev. L. A. OSTRANDER, of Owego, will deliver his popular lecture on "Cash" in the Presbyterian church on Tuesday evening, the 24th instant, beginning at 8 o'clock. Admission free. A cordial invitation is given to all to attend.

Our neighbor GRADY, the fashionable tailor, has been compelled to secure larger rooms for his workmen, and has fitted up his shop on Pine street in elegant style. Here he does the cutting and fitting himself. He has a large assortment of cloths which are paid for, and he is offering great inducements to his customers. Mr. GRADY has had long experience and is acknowledged to be one of the very best tailors in the country.

On Thursday evening Prof. GLEASON gave a free lecture to the people of Towanda, concerning the horse. After making many startling assertions, he gave a private exhibition of scientific horsemanship in the stables of the Ward House. Then Mr. GLEASON verified all his assertions and proved himself to be master of his subject. His method of training and breaking horses is valuable, and his way of curing kicking horses every one should know. Prof. GLEASON has a system of accurately telling the ages of horses; this alone is worth more than it costs to become a member of his class.

We have learned a few more particulars of the accident which occurred to a son (JAMES we think) of W. W. SCOUTON, of Wilmot, a brief account of which was given our readers a few days ago. It appears he had been attending school at Kingston and at that place or some town below, he was at the railroad when a freight train passed; he, in a playful mood, thought to catch hold of a car and run along with the train. On catching a ring or hook at side of car and attempting to keep along, finding the motion too great for his speed, he at once made an effort to release his hand, but the ring having drawn back wedged it so tight that he was unable to extricate it. In this perilous position he was hauled along until one finger was torn out and the whole hand broken and mangled in a horrible manner, when it finally drew out the vise-like place it was in. He received a bad wound in the head, beside many bruises about the body, and the wonder is that he escaped immediate death. He is now at his father's, lying in a very critical condition and his recovery doubtful. Mr. SCOUTON, the father, is one of the leading farmers of Wilmot and has several sons, all stirring young men, one a lawyer at Dushore. In this affliction they all have the condolence of the entire community.

An old coin turned up anew. Mr. A. L. Rockwell showed to us the other day, a coin bearing the date of 1800, which their plow had but just turned up to the surface while plowing the field for corn. It is a one cent coin, with all the usual attire of the mintage of the times.

"One cent," clear and legible stands out on the first side, surrounded by the flowery wreath, beautifully tied and fastened at the bottom. Then the outer edge of this side surface contains, just without the flowery wreath, the familiar signification, plain and clear, "United States of America," while between the U in United, and the A in America, we find as a completion of that circle in old style, the 1-100, which has been so long omitted that we had forgotten its ever being in use. The edge is plain and without ornaments or indentation. The reverse side exhibits the Goddess of Liberty, with the word "Liberty" covering the head.

The figures 1800 are at the bottom, showing this penny to have outranked in age all presidential administrations since the election and administration of Thomas Jefferson. What mighty changes has this little coin of eighty-one years of age witnessed—wars and commotion, steamboats, railroads, canals, internal and external improvements, learning and literature, schools and colleges, telegraphs and telephone communication, wealth, commerce and expansion, so that a little handful comparatively, by industry and economy has become one of the most mighty powers that the sun shines upon. Nineteen years yet remain of the first hundred years of this little coin. In these remaining years—O, what will occur? Possibly liquor may be banished from the hotels, as it is now from the churches, and only sold for mechanical, medical, scientific and sacramental (wine) purposes. Oppression and wrong may be to a great extent put away, and "man to man shall brother be for all that."

Our popular artist, G. H. WOOD, is gaining a reputation for excellence of work which is making Towanda famous. He received the following flattering letter on Saturday from a delighted customer:

CAMDEN, N. Y., May 11th, 1881.

Mr. GEO. H. WOOD:
My Dear Sir—The picture arrived this morning, and was paid for and taken in less than two seconds after it was opened. It is without doubt the finest picture of any kind in town; in fact, the finest I ever saw at any price.

I cannot compliment you sufficiently for your talent, and assure you that you will never regret the labor bestowed on this piece of work; it will be productive of other similar work from this section and to no small amount. I have no doubt that by putting it on exhibition in window I could secure you hundreds of dollars worth of work. I have compared it with former one of same subject made by you at $15 I think, and this is very much finer.

My wife, who is a daughter of the subject, is perfectly carried away; you may consider her under obligations to you. Again thanking you, I remain,
Yours, &c.,
